Bill For the Relief of Iron Clad Contractors Discussed—Wages of Government Employes Increased Twenty Per Cent.—The Tax Bill—The General Bill Deferred—Committee Instructed to Report a Bill Specially Referring to Whisky and Tobacco.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, June 15, 1868.

SENATE.

The CHAIR submitted petitions of citizens of Ohio in favor of the passage of Mr. Jacks' civil service bill.

Mr. NYE introduced a bill relative to coast defences. Referred.

Mr. HENDRICKS, from the Committee on Naval Affairs, reported a bill to facilitate the settlement of certain prizes in the United States District Court of Florida.

Mr. FOWLER introduced a bill to provide for the better security of life on steamboats and other vessels. Referred.

The bill to provide for refunding duties erroneously exacted at New York, amended by appropriating $60,000, was passed.

Mr. WILSON, from the Committee on Military Affairs, reported a substitute for the bill for the construction of a bridge across the Missouri river, at Missouri reservation at Fort Leavenworth.

Mr. DRAKE called up the bill for the relief of certain contractors for the construction of vessels and steamers' machinery. He said the contractors had been unfairly treated by the Commission appointed by the act of March 2d, who reported favorably in regard to six iron-clads built in the East and unfavorably to the rest, they having been in the West; that all the contractrs desired was permission to go to the Court of Claims and establish their claims.

Mr. CHANDLER, as a member of the late committee on the Conduct of the War, recollected that the investigation showed a number of western iron clads would not float when finished, and after expensive alterations they were worse than before. In reply to Mr. Drake, he said he could not recollect that those named in the bill were among them, and believed the responsibility attached to the Navy Department.

Mr. FRELINGHUYSEN, representing the dissenting members of the Committee on Naval Affairs, opposed the bill, claiming that there was no evidence before Congress that the decision of the Commission against this claim was not just. He explained that the government had allowed them five millions on their claim which was fourteen millions, and the bill recently passed gave the $0,000 after the investigation.

Mr. HENDRICKS advocated the bill. He said the contractors, by reason of delay on the part of the Government in furnishing specifications, &c., had been subjected to great loss from the rise in gold and consequently in material.

Mr. HOWE offered an amendment forbidding such reference of any claim by Secor & Co., of the Atlantic Iron Works, and others named.

Mr. HENDRICKS moved to amend by adding the words "upon any vessel upon which an allowance was made by the Board organized under the act of March 2d, 1867."

After further debate, Mr. Hendricks' amendment to the amendment was adopted—3 to 19, and Mr. Howe's amendment was then adopted as amended, and the bill passed—24 to 17.

The bill supplementary to the act to provide that National currency be secured by a pledge of United States bonds, and to provide for the circulation thereof, approved June 3d, 1864, was taken up. The question was on the amendment of Mr. Morrill, of Vermont, as follows: And on the issue of any increase of national circulation provided in this section, the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and required to permanently withdraw an equal amount of United States notes.

Mr. MORTON gave notice that when in order he will move to add the following: And the United States notes so retired shall not be obtained by sale of bonds, but shall be taken from funds in the Treasury, collected in the ordinary way.

Mr. COLE addressed the Senate in favor of the proposition of the Committee to make the twenty million increase.

The debate was continued by Messrs. Morrill, Conkling and Fessenden.

Mr. CAMERON moved to table the bill. He desired to defer all such subjects until after the election.

The motion was rejected—14 to 24.

Mr. SUMNER obtained leave to introduce a resolution, which was adopted, inviting the Chinese Embassy to visit the Senate on Wednesday next.

A motion to adjourn was rejected.

Mr. MORRILL'S amendment to the currency act was rejected—16 against 27.

Mr. DAVIS offered the following as a substitute for a section by inserting that there shall be withdrawn by the Comptroller of Currency from the Banks of any State or Territory that may have been in excess of circulating notes upon the principle of their distribution as regulated by the same rules adopted by the Treasury Department, the circulation so withdrawn shall be distributed by the Comptroller of Currency among the National Banks in such States and Territories as may have less than their proper proportion of their circulating notes.

He was about to address the Senate, but yielded to a motion to adjourn, which prevailed—24 to 16.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

BILLS INTRODUCED.

Amending homestead law.

Amending habeas corpus act.

Also, to define felonies and misdemeanors and to regulate peremptory challenges in United States Courts.

For division of Texas and admission to the Union.

To authorize the Secretary of War to deliver certain ordnance to the States of Arkansas, Louisiana, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama and Florida, for the use of militia, on the discontinuance of the military governments therein.

To provide for the construction of a wagon road through Dakota, Montana and Singleton Territories.

To promote the efficiency of the revenue, &c.

Concerning the naturalization of aliens.

The resolution introduced last Monday to increase twenty per cent. the compensation to civil employes of the Government at Washington came up and passed under the operation of the previous question—yeas 71, nays 58.

Mr. SHANKS offered the following resolution and moved the previous question:

Resolved, That in the judgment of the House it will inflict a serious loss in National revenues to delay the revision of taxes on distilled spirits and tobacco until the same can be accomplished by a general revision of the internal revenue system, and the Committee of Ways and Means is hereby instructed to report without delay a separate bill for the revision of taxes on the manufacture and sale of distilled spirits and tobacco.

Mr. SCHENCK expressed the hope that the resolution would not be insisted on.

The SPEAKER stated debate was not in order.

Mr. SCHENCK declared the Committee could not make a revision as soon as it could get through with the ordinary bill.

The previous question was seconded—62 to 53.

Mr. PILE moved to lay the resolution on the table—yeas 68, nays 71.

Mr. SHENCK moved to reconsider the vote on seconding the previous question. He desired to know whether the House would, before disposing of this question, refuse to hear the nine gentlemen who had been appointed a Committee of Ways and Means. [Loud calls to order.]

The SPEAKER interrupted Mr. Schenck and announced that he was not in order.

Mr. SCHENCK said, (amid much uproar and excitement,) I know I am not. I only want to say this because we are choked down without opportunity to say a word in explanation.

Mr. WASHBURNE, Ill—I want to call the attention of the country to the fact that we have just voted a million dollars of extra pay to clerks in Washington, and I am opposed to continuing the session to put additional taxes on the people to pay this. [Confusion and excitement.]

Mr. MAYNARD moved to reconsider the vote refusing to lay the resolution on the table and proposed to discuss.

The SPEAKER informed him the motion was undebatable.

Mr. WASHBURN moved to lay the motion to reconsider on the table. Carried—71 to 62.

Mr. SCHENCK remarked his motion to reconsider the vote seconding the previous question was in order, that he might make an explanation.

Mr. MAYNARD moved the House adjourn.

Mr. WASHBURNE—Does that motion come from the Committee of Ways and Means?

Mr. MAYNARD—Yes, and I give notice that all the Committee of Ways and Means wants is to be heard on this question. [Calls to order.]

The SPEAKER called Mr. Maynard to order and informed him that if he persisted in speaking when no debate was in order he would present the case to the House.

Mr. FARNSWORTH—I ask unanimous consent of the House that the Committee of Ways and Means may be heard for five to ten minutes.

Mr. HARLAN—I object.

Mr. SCHENCK—I ask the yeas and nays on the motion to adjourn.

The question was taken and the House refused to adjourn—20 to 103.

Mr. PILE asked unanimous consent that the Chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means be allowed fifteen minutes for an explanation.

Mr. BUTLER said—Yes, provided somebody be allowed to answer.

Mr. BENJAMIN—I object.

The question being on Mr. Schenck's motion to reconsider the vote seconding the previous question, Mr. STEVENS, of Pa., moved to lay the motion on the table. Agreed to—yeas 63, nays 52.

Mr. SCOFIELD moved to suspend the rules so as to allow the Committee of Ways and Means half an hour to speak on the question and the opponents another half hour. Agreed to.

After an hour's debate, during which speeches were made by Messrs. Shanks, Butler, Schenck, Price and Pruyn, the House passed a resolution instructing the Committee of Ways and Means to report a separate bill for the revision of the tax on the manufacture and sale of distilled spirits and tobacco—74 to 63.

The SPEAKER laid before House a message from the President, enclosing a report from the Secretary of the Interior. He says the treaty recently concluded between the United States and the Great and Little Osage Indians, was submitted to the Senate prior to the resolution of the House on the subject. The message was referred to the Committee on Indian Affairs, with leave to report at any time on the subject of treaty.

Mr. SCHENCK offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That after the report of a tax bill by the Committee of Ways and Means, in pursuance of the order just passed, no other business shall be in order but the consideration of the bill so reported by the said Committee, except from the Committee on enrolled bills.

This was adopted under a suspension of the rules.

On motion of Mr. ELLIOTT, the river and harbor bill was made the special order for to-morrow in the House as in Committee of the Whole under the five minute rule.

Mr. SCHENCK, in reply to a question, said if the Committee of Ways and Means was required to report only on distilled spirits and tobacco, they would soon make a report; but if they were required to report the various portions of the bill relating to those subjects, and dovetail them together so as to constitute a unity, he could not tell how long it would be.

The Senate bill relating to the contested elections in Washington was taken up, debated twenty minutes and passed—ninety-four to twenty-six.

Mr. LOGAN moved a suspension of the rules to enable him to offer a preamble and resolution providing for the appointment of a committee of five to inquire into the propriety and expediency of removing the seat of government to a point near the geographical center of the Republic.

This the House refused—yeas 43, nays 67.

Mr. SCHOFIELD asked unanimous consent to offer a resolution authorizing the Committee of Ways and Means to include in the new tax bill the subject of mineral oil.

Messrs. MAYNARD and SPALDING objected.

Mr. SCHOFIELD moved to suspend the rules, but the House refused.

Mr. BUTLER moved to suspend the rules to discharge the Committee of the Whole from the bill appropriating $15,000,000 to the Indian Commission, which was agreed to and the bill passed.

Mr. ROBINSON, by unanimous consent, offered a resolution requesting the President to take measures to secure the release from imprisonment of Warren and Costello, convicted and sentenced in Great Britain for words and acts spoken and done in the United States, and to take measures to secure their return to the flag with such ceremonies as may be appropriate to the occasion. The resolution was adopted.

Mr. BINGHAM moved to reconsider the vote by which the twenty per cent. joint resolution was passed.

The motion was entered.

Mr. ASHLEY, of Ohio, moved to suspend the rules for the purpose of offering a resolution relating to the assassination of Solomon Dill and other persons in South Carolina.

Pending the vote the House adjourned.

—Gen. Grant was in New York Monday, and attended Jerome Park races.

Nomination Withdrawn—Land Office Business—Rumored Resignation—The Surratt Trial—Proposed Revolving Fort.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, June 15, 1868.

NOMINATION WITHDRAWN.

The President to-day withdrew from the Senate the nomination of General Mott as Minister to Costa Rica, at his own request.

LAND OFFICE BUSINESS.

Reports to the General Land Office show that during May two hundred and eighty-six farms, comprising over twenty thousand acres, were added to the productive area of Arkansas.

RUMORED RESIGNATION.

Rumors have been in circulation that S. M. Clark, of the Bureau of Printing in the Treasury Department, has resigned, but nothing very definite can be ascertained with regard thereto, except that several days ago Clark intimated to Secretary McCulloch his readiness to resign upon the close of an examination into the affairs of his Bureau by a special Committee to be appointed by the Secretary for that purpose, and an account of stock duly made and reported. No such Committee has yet been appointed, although it is believed such action will be taken, and that Mr. Clark's resignation will soon be tendered.

REVOLVING FORT.

Senator Nye's bill introduced to-day is for an inquiry into the cost of construating a revolving fort at the entrance of New York Harbor, and gives authority for experiments.

THE SURRATT TRIAL.

The Surratt trial has been postponed till next Monday, the Government not being ready to proceed.

PROPOSES TO ANSWER.

Commissioner Rollins proposes to answer Secretary McCulloch's last communication.

Republican County Convention—Nominations for the Senate and House.

[Special Dispatch to Pittsburgh Gazette.]

BUTLER, PA., June 15, 1868.

The Butler County Convention was held to-day in the Court House, there being a large attendance and much interest was manifested in the proceedings. The candidates were numerous and embraced many of the most prominent names in the county. A set of resolutions endorsing the nomination of Grant and Colfax, and the entire proceedings of the Chicago National Convention were adopted. A resolution friendly to Mr. Curtin was voted down.

Hon. James Kerr, of Harrisville, was nominated for the State Senate; Col. William C. Adams, of Fairview, and Alexander Leslie, of Middlesex township, were nominated for Assembly.

E. McJunkin received the county nomination for Congress, and the conferees were instructed to vote for him first, last and all the time, no matter who else may be put forward for the nomination. R.

The Expected Raid in Canada—Ample Preparations.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

TORONTO, June 15.—The volunteers and regulars have been actively preparing for any emergency, in consequence of Fenian rumors. A brigade will be stationed in each of the cities of Toronto, Hamilton and London, while forces will be placed at Callingwood and exposed points, and reserves organized to take the field if necessary. Complete provision is made for any sudden attack or raid.

Government Officers Convicted of Fraud and Sentenced.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

RICHMOND, June 15.—The case of John H. Anderson, Collector of the Fourth District, and others, charged with conspiracy to defraud the Government, was concluded before Judge Chase to-day. A verdict of guilty was rendered against Anderson, Collector, Robert Ellsom, Inspector, and Gouldman and Patterson, Assistant Inspectors. Sentence was passed as follows: Anderson fined $10,000 and two years imprisonment; Ellsom fined $5,000 and two years imprisonment; Patterson ditto; Gouldman fined $2,000 and two years imprisonment.

Major General T. W. Crawford.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

LOUISVILLE, June 15.—The name of Maj. General T. W. Crawford, now commanding at this post, appears in the list of a committee appointed at Philadelphia on the 10th inst., to advance the claims of Mr. Chase to the Presidency. The use of Gen. Crawford's name in this connection was wholly without his authority, as he is known here to be earnestly in favor of the election of General Grant, and the success of the principles announced in the Chicago platform.

New Orleans Matters.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW ORLEANS, June 15.—General Buchanan has released the New Orleans Gas Company from the action of General Bank's order of 1864, requiring them to transfer to the Quartermaster's Department all stock standing in the name of persons in the civil or military service of the rebellion.

The inauguration of State officials did not take place to-day as called for in Register Packard's proclamation.

North Carolina Legislature.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

RALEIGH, June 15.—W. W. Holden, Governor elect, issues a proclamation to-morrow, convening the General Assembly on the 1st of July. The officers will be installed, it is understood, as their disabilities have been removed, except such as are already qualified, who, it is presumed will comply with the law of Congress just passed.

California Matters.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 15.—The fact has just transpired that the act of the last Legislature alienating Yosmite Grant, which passed over Gov. Haight's veto, was not certified to by the Secretary of State as is legally required, and is not a law.

The ship Cawper, from Hong Kong, brings four hundred Chinese.

FROM EUROPE.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

SOUTH AMERICA.

DESPERATE FIGHTING OF THE ALLIES AND PARAGUAYANS.

LISBON, June 15.—The mail steamer has arrived here from Rio Janeiro. She brings the following intelligence: After the heavy bombardment of Humaita the Allies made a combined attack on the rear of the position to gain possession of the forest of Gran Chascoe, and thereby cut off the communication of the Paraguayans. The assault was repulsed after a desperate engagement, and the Allies were compelled to relinquish the attempt. The siege of Humaita still continued, and the fortress was closely invested by land and water.

GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, June 15.—In the House of Commons this evening the Secretary for Foreign Affairs, Lord Stanley, said the Egyptian Government entertained a plan for the establishment of courts of law to protect the rights of residents in Egypt of foreign birth, and that the Viceroy was desirous of carrying the measure into effect.

GERMANY.

BERLIN, June 15.—The North German Parliament has passed the bill authorizing the Government to raise a loan, the proceeds to be applied to the enlargement and improvement of the Federal navy.

Reformed Presbytery of Pittsburgh—Calls Presented—Presbytery Suspends her Relation to General Synod.

The Pittsburgh Presbytery of the Reformed Presbyterian Church held a special meeting in Rev. John McMillan's Church, Allegheny, last evening. Rev. Robert McMillan, the Moderator, constituted the Presbytery by prayer. Two calls—one from Neshannock, Lawrence county, and another from Fairview, Beaver county—were presented to Mr. J. G. Boyce, a licentiate under the care of the Presbytery, and by him respectfully declined.

Rev. John McMillan then offered a paper, which declared the relations between the Presbytery and the General Synod are suspended until the late action of Synod in the case of Geo. H. Stuart, Esq., be reversed. The paper is as follows:

WHEREAS, The General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, at its last meeting held at Pittsburgh, did, in the most disorderly, illegal, cruel, partial and outrageous manner resolve to suspend Mr. George H. Stuart from office and membership in the Church, contrary to all the forms, order and precedents that have obtained in the administration of discipline in our ecclesiastical organization; and,

WHEREAS, By a subsequent resolution it was ordered by Synod that all Sessions and Presbyteries be directed to carry out the law of the Church in accordance with the deliverances of Synod in this suspension of Mr. Stuart; and

WHEREAS, This Presbytery regards the action of Synod in said case as contrary to the received standards of our Church Book of Discipline, the terms of communion, the formula of Ordination, and numerous acts upon the records of the General Synod, and regarding the whole proceedings as arbitrary and injurious to the cause of our Lord Jesus Christ and subversion of the permanent obedience which we owe Him as the great king and only head and law-giver of the church; therefore,

Resolved, That the Presbytery maintaining our long established and well understood position, and endeavoring to carry out our principles, doctrine, order, discipline and government as heretofore, do hereby suspend our relations to said Synod until the aforesaid action be rescinded, or until we obtain further light—and in the meantime we remain in the Reformed Presbyterian Church, maintaining and endeavoring to interpret and develope her great and glorious principles in their proper application to the age and country in which we live, of which we are cordial and loyal citizens—trusting that ere long those who have trampled on our constitution and our laws, and have perverted our order and discipline, will revoke their unjust and illegal acts, and concur with us in the views we have thus announced in our solemn protest against the unworthy action of the late General Synod.

Rev. Geo. Scott, D.D., most cordially seconded the paper. The action was partial, unjust, illegal and outrageous.

Dr. Douglas thought the paper was not courteous enough towards Synod. Presbytery had a right to express its dissent or disapprobation of the action of Synod in the case. But to characterise it as outrageous, &c., to the "mother" of whom so much had been said on other occasions.

Rev. John Algeed said if the paper should be passed it would leave us at loose ends. We would have no fellowship with any body of christians.

Mr. Wm. Early was for maintaining the principle of the church and carrying out the law so long as it remained in force.

Mr. J. M. Imbrie was astonished to hear what some members had said on the floor of the Presbytery. Ten years ago he was not a member of the Reformed Presbyterian Church. When he entered her he was taught that the Scripture Psalms only were to be sung. He had heard ministers debarring those from the communion table who sang anything but the Scripture psalms.

Mr. Thomas Smith said he could agree with some things in the paper, but if he had a vote he could not give it for its passage. He could not see why there was so much ado about this case by the Presbytery when it had refused within the last six months to remove the suspension pronounced upon Rev. D. Kennedy for a less aggravated offence. He did not think that suspension should have been pronounced in either case.

Rev. J. F. Hill said it was a remarkable coincidence that the Synod had persistently refused to visit censure on those who had violated the law, and that at the late meeting two-thirds were found willing to visit judicial censure on the alleged violators of the law.

Rev. John McMillan said the Moderator of the Synod announced in private conversation that they had come prepared to put all men in their proper places. He desired to have the standards of the church remain as they are. He wished each brother to interpret them for himself. He did not wish to throw men out of the church because they had on some occasions sung hymns. He thought the Church should be consistent.

Rev. Thos. Johnston offered the following substitute:

That whereas this Presbytery is called upon to define her position in reference to the recent action of the General Synod, by which Geo. H. Stewart was summarily suspended from eldership and membership in the Church—and the subordinate judicatories, directed to proceed with all similar cases in accordance with this precedent.

Resolved, That in the view of this Presbytery the said action of Synod was unjust, cruel, unpresbyterial, and subversive of the interests, and unless repealed subversive of the existence of the church to which we belong.

2. Resolved, That we do not feel bound, but utterly refuse to execute the resolution of Synod, directing Presbyteries and Sessions to proceed with similar offenders, in accordance with the precedent established in Mr. Stewart's case.

3, Resolved, That this Presbytery will labor by all suitable methods to secure the repeal of the above action of Synod.

This paper was not seconded. The question having been put on the original paper, it was carried by a vote of 5 to 4, one not voting.

The Moderator having announced that this action suspended the relations of the Presbytery to the Synod, Dr. Douglas said he was for the union of the Church of God and not for her disintegration. He did not believe they should commit suicide. This act of secession has struck a blow to union, and he would announce that he still remained a member of the Reformed Presbytery in connection with the General Synod.

Rev. John Algood and Messrs. J. M. Imbrie and William Early made similar declarations.

Dr. Douglas said they who remained in full relation to the Synod would expect to receive all the Presbyterian papers.

Dr. Scott said there was no necessity for division, that all the members of the Presbytery were the same as before, only they suspended their relations to Synod.

Revs. J. F. Hill and Robert McMillan asked to be relieved from their pastoral charges. The requests were laid on the table.

Presbytery adjourned.

Washington Topics and Gossip.

Mr. Johnson has formally tendered the position of Attorney General to Mr. Evarts, and that gentleman will accept the appointment, and will probably be confirmed.

Mr. McCulloch will resign about the end of the month, and is deemed quite probable that Mr. Groesbeck will succeed him, although the friends of R. J. Walker are urging his claims upon the President.

General Butler finished his report and presented it to the Managers yesterday. It will go to the House either to-day or to-morrow.

General Lorenzo Thomas at his own request, has been sent on an inspection tour in the South of our National Cemetries.

The National Intelligencer publishes a huge editorial urging the immediate removal of Secretary McCulloch. The idea is to make him responsible for certain very bad appointments in various parts of the country at present laid at the door of Mr. Johnson.

The proposed increase of the pay of officers of the regular army will be opposed and probably defeated in the House.

Mr. Johnson's friends have dropped Hancock, and are now working for Chase and against Pendleton.

Mr. Rollins put in a rejoinder to Mr. McCulloch's last letter yesterday. A spicy correspondence is looked for yet, and the Secretary of the Treasury, with both parties pounding him, will have to go under without doubt.

Senator Fessenden has received an invitation from about one hundred Boston Conservatives to dine with them, but he will decline in a respectful manner, as he desires to act with the Radicals upon all general legislature.

It is the intention of Reverdy Johnson, the new Minister to England, to leave for his new field of duty about the middle of July. No change is to be made in the Secretary of Legation. Mr. Johnson will tender his resignation as United States Senator, to the Governor of Maryland, in the course of a couple of weeks. As the Legislature is not in session at the present time, the vacancy caused by Mr. Johnson's resignation will be filled by an appointment from the Governor.

Sunday School Institute.

The Western Allegheny County Sunday School Teachers' Institute held its last regular meeting on the 11th and 12th inst. at Deer Creek U. P. Church, in West Deer Township. The meeting was one of unusual interest, and a large and appreciative audience was entertained with speeches and addresses throughout the protracted sittings of the Institute by the members and other eminent friends of the Sunday School cause who were present. Among the latter were Rev. Joseph Little, Rev. J. S. Travelli, Rev. Alex. McLaughlin, Mr. Archy Marshal and others. The next meeting of the Institute will be held in West Union U. P. Church, Pine township, on Thursday, the 29th of October next.

The well on the Tallman Farm, Upper Cherry Run, owned by Thompson Andrews, was producing at the rate of one hundred and twenty-five barrels per day last week. The wells on Leases Nos. 110 and 111, on the same farm, are improving. On the Story Farm a new well, located near the old Sheridan well, was struck on Tuesday last. It is owned by the Columbia Oil Company, and is reported to be producing one hundred and ninety barrels per day.

Gone to Williamsport.—The June session of the United States Circuit and District Courts commenced at Williamsport yesterday morning. Judge McCandless, Marshal Rowley, District Attorney Carnahan, S. C. McCandless, Esq., Clerk of the District Court, together with a number of attorneys and jurymen summoned from this vicinity, left on Friday and Saturday for Williamsport.

Newport Bridge.—W. Milner Roberts, Esq., left yesterday in answer to a telegram from the Congressional Committee, having under consideration the building of the bridge over the Ohio river at Newport. A committee representing the river interests of Cincinnati are also there attending to the same case.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

AN EX-"REBEL" writes the following Grant campaign song for the Atlanta (Ga.) Era:

AIR—Bonnie Blue Flag.

Old Maine to California sends
The welcome, welcome word,
And Northward rolling to the South,
The swelling cry is heard,
And men of every age and race
Have caught the glorious shout,
Hurrah, hurrah, for General Grant,
And fling his banner out.

Hurrah! Hurrah,
For General Grant, hurrah!
Hurrah for the Union Flag
With every Southern Star.

The wave of Reconstruction rolls
From Old Virginia's hills,
Across the South to Texas plains
And every bosom thrills,
When this is done, we'll join the fight,
And it is our intent,
To hoist the name of General Grant
And make him President.

Hurrah! Hurrah, &c.

We swear upon the sword of Lee,
Beside our Jackson's grave,
To battle only for the man
Who can the Union save,
By all the blood the war has shed,
By all we hope to be,
We'll rally to the standard now
That keeps the people free.

Hurrah! Hurrah, &c.

They're rallying North, and East, and West,
We'll rally in the South,
With ringing shouts for General Grant,
Upon each patriot mouth.
Hurrah for Grant! the shouts must roll
From every Union lip,
And every man must rally now
To man the Union ship.

Hurrah! Hurrah, &c.

EPHEMERIS.

—Zoe is acting in Titusville.

—Nashville is to have a park.

—John G. Saxe is in Washington.

—Tom Thumb is a mason of high degree.

—Grasshoppers are eating up Central Iowa.

—The State debt of Virginia is $47,000,000.

—Hugo and Dumas are the richest French authors.

—The young Emperor of China has just been married.

—Some one has called the chair the seat of civilization.

—Wylie, the tenor of Riching's Opera Troupe, is dead.

—The San Franciscan headless chicken is in New Jersey.

—The Prince of Wales is going back to Ireland in August.

—Beet sugar is bound to become one of California's staples.

—Only 36 of the 600 students at Oberlin College are colored.

—The Chicago Post says we all have our trials—all except Jeff Davis.

—Young New York swells think it necessary to drive tandem now.

—Capital punishment has been abolished by act of Parliament in Saxony.

—Normandy lace caps are again spoken of as a summer substitute for bonnets.

—The French Government pays Madame Miramon a pension of 6,000 francs a year.

—There are more houses being built this year than ever before in the United States.

—A fine statue of Geo. Peabody is to be put up in London near the Royal Exchange.

—Virtuous Weed is indignantly accusing Greely of having been systematically bribed.

—Nearly two million pounds of American cheese were sent to England in May last.

—The Duke of Argyle is about to give a banquet to Cyrus W. Field on the first of July.

—Beauregard is in New York, where he is not so much of a lion as he might have been.

—The Mexican tragedy was an expensive one. Its production cost Napoleon $40,000,000.

—Andrew Porter is said to be the author of an article signed D. D. P. in the Galaxy for July.

—Franklin Pierce is the only living man who was ever elected President of the United States.

—Five poor little children, all under fifteen and quite penniless, are the legacy left by poor Kit Carson.

—Adah Isaac Menken Heenan, etc., etc., is once more married, and her final name at present is Maitland.

—The Colt artesian well at Hartford is 1,240 feet deep, and the drill is stuck and they can't get it out.

—Why is the letter U of more value than cream to a dairy maid? Because it makes better butter.—Judy.

—Indiana squirrels feed on locusts, and then Indianians feed on squirrels and die, for the locusts poison them.

—Pennsylvania, New York and Alabama are of the same size, that is the area of each is 46,000 square miles.

—Oxyethelendisulophonic acid is a new one which is used for something by those who can pronounce it properly.

—One hundred and ten editions of Keble's Christian year have been published in England and the demand is still great.

—Doubts are already current as to the Emperor of Abyssinia being dead. Some one will be sure to see him in Berlin some day.

—Short dresses are sometimes called Metternichs because the Princess Metternich (having pretty feet) advocates their introduction.

—Mr. Dickens has made plunder enough by travelling on his reputation, and says that after next November he shall abandon the reading desk forever.

—Vallandigham says he is proud of his war record. A certain fox who lost his tail is reported to have said he was glad of it, because it was so much more stylish.

—Spider velocipedes are very popular in Paris. They may be here, too, when the Allegheny Commons become pleasant places, surrounded by smooth roads.

—It is probably a good thing for Ohio that she has produced Vallandigham, Woolley and Pendleton, as she has given birth to so many excellent men, that otherwise she might become vain.

—Wade Hampton says the South will concede impartial suffrage, but demands State rights. State rights were killed with the rebellion, and as to the concession, we really can't see what the South has to do with it.

—The corner stone of a marine hospital is to be laid in Erie on the 4th of July. The members of the State Legislature are to be invited to participate in the ceremony. Attorney General Brewster will deliver the oration.

—Judy gives about as severe a cut to the Prince of Wales as a delicate sarcasm is capable of; it says, "the best air to the throne we know of is God save the Queen." We think that is the most delicious morceau that has yet appeared in Judy.

—"Stuped simple peasants and workmen" is the way in which the Republikaner, a German Democratic sheet published in this city, speaks of the masses of men who voted for Lincoln, yet at the same time labared with their hands for their daily bread.

—A German paper of this city has quite a lengthy article in which it endeavors to prove that the journals of Germany do not favor Grant. It really does prove that either the German papers or this particular German paper are edited by foolish people.

—The Cincinnati Colored Citizen of this week says: A gentlemen of this city noted for his elegance and exquisiteness of his apparel, is to be united in the holy bonds of wedlock, during the coming fall, to Miss Heloise de Lacroix, the fifty thousand dollar quadroon belle of Cambridgeport, Massachusetts.

—A young man, twenty-two years of age, residing in Wilbraham, Massachusetts, boasts that he never drank a cup of tea or coffee in his life, never smoked or chewed, never tasted a drop of liquor or used a profane word, and says if he ever told a lie he never got caught in one. We should advise that young man's father to look out for his cherry trees,———and his spoons.

—We have heard of mean men, and we thought we had heard of such very mean men that we could never again be astonished at their meanness, but Tuscarawas, Ohio, has provided a miracle in that way. A certain woman lay dying, and a certain man, renowned for his seeming piety, was requested to come and pray with her, and he came; but while on his knees by the deathbed, he reached his hand under the pillow and stole a little package of gold; after which he finished his prayers and departed. If any meaner action than this ever occurred we don't believe we care about hearing it.

The Cholera.

Dr. J. C. Peters writes to the New York Medical Gazette:

"The recent conquest of Bokhara by the Russians has considerable interest for the medical world. Bokhara is the largest city in the centre of Asia, and is the centre of a great caravan trade from India in the South, Persia in the west, Russia in the North, and China in the east. Almost every epidemic of cholera has been brought to Bokhara by way of Cabul and Balk, and thence distributed in all directions, especially to Russia by way of Khiva, to Astracan and Orenburg. The epidemic of 1827 came up from India, by way of Lahore, to Cabul, passed through Balk, Bokhara in 1828, broke out Khiva early in 1828, and reached Orenburg, in Russia, in August, 1829, and was thence distributed to the rest of Europe.

"The cholera of 1844 again passed from the north-western provinces of India by way of Lahore, reached Cabul in June, Balk in August, Bokhara in September, Kniva in October and Orenburg and Astracan early in 1845.

"The epidemic of 1850 reached Europe by the same route as 1852, and caused a greater devastation during the following four years than any former visitation. The cholera of 1865 followed the same route.

"It remains to be seen whether the Russians will be able to establish such sanitary regulations as will prevent the approach of cholera from this direction.

"There are three great routes from India to Europe: 1. The route just alluded to. 2. Up the Persian Gulf to Persia, Syria, Asia Minor, Turkey, Turkey in Asia, to and between the Caspian and Black Seas, and thus to the rest of Europe. 3. Up the Red Sea to Mecca' Cairo, Suez and Alexandria, to the Mediterranean, and thus over the whole south of Europe. Much would be gained in stopping the disease from progressing along either one of these lines."

The Camphor of China.

Up a branch of the river Tam-suy lies the town of Mbang-ka, navigable by large junks, which carry down from thence the valuable produce of the camphor tree (Laurus camphora). This important branch of trade is enjoyed as a monopoly by the camphor mandarin, who pays the Chinese Government $40,000 for the sole right of exportation. Having obtained the camphor at the rate of about $5 per picul of 133⅓ lbs., this favored speculator can then retail it for $27. Upward of ten per cent. of the drug is lost by evaporation during the transit, owing to the dogged conservatism or stupidity of the dealers in continuing to pack it in wood instead of tin cases. In Labuan the writer subsequently met with giant camphor trees of a different class (Dryobalanops camphora), ranging to a height of from 150 to 200 feet, their iron hard roots winding through the soil for sixty yards from the trunk, and even at that distance as thick as a man's thigh. The camphor, however, is found in the form of solid concretions in the crevices and fissures of the wood, and can only be obtained by cutting down the tree. Together with the hard crystalline masses thus found there is also an essential oil, believed to be camphor in an imperfectly formed condition, which, though artificially crystallized, does not produce camphor of so good a quality as that which is naturally solidified in the cavities of the wood. The commercial camphor of Formosa is of a more volatile kind, and obtained by dry distillation from the wood, the branches, and the leaves of the plant alike. This vegetable secretion is not, however, confined to the true camphor laurel, being also found in other lauraceous plants, especially cinnamon.

Getting all the Milk into Butter.

I note that a new fashioned churn that converts the entire milk into butter, is said to be a great thing—to sell I suppose. I have known the process for several years, which is: Three pints of milk, fresh from the cow, or any milk, if fresh; put it in a stone churn—it is best to use the old patent dasher—add three pounds of butter, sliced thin, and three yellows of eggs, set the churn in a pail of hot water till you get the mess lukewarm or at blood heat, and about two minutes will turn the whole thing into butter, leaving no milk. It looks more like magic than anything I ever saw. It must be thoroughly churned after it has come to butter, or it will incline to go back to milk. I have no thermometer, and do not know what degree of heat is best. I wrote you a letter four years since about this, and did not send it because I was afraid it would be a detriment to butter dealers and consumers as they might get inferior butter on their hands. If properly made, I believe it a good thing.—Cor. American Institute Farmer's Club.

ALLEGHENY CATTLE MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, June 15, 1868.

CATTLE.

The supply of Cattle on sale to-day was up to that of last week in point of number, while in regard to quality, it was below the usual standard. There but a comparatively small number Chicago, and a much larger number the adjacent counties, as well as from, and this accounts for the general inferiority of the stock on sale; there was an unusually large number of Cattle in from her county, (this State) and Washington county, also, was pretty well represented. Notwithstanding the fact, therefore that the number of Cattle was smaller it was last week, the market to us, ared a little slow, and dealers generally reported it a pretty hard one, though, we have already intimated, real prime hers cattle, in consequence of a limited ply, sold readily, and that, too, at full es, but the common and medium es moved off very slowly, and, we ose, that this particular grade of stock not command last week's prices. There several small outside buyers in attendce, mainly butchers, and one eastern er, and had it not been that several ches were taken out of the market by n, it would, in all probability, have a pretty hard one for holders, as there ld in that event have been a great y more cattle than was required. The rted sales were as follows:

ter Hartman sold 11 head of prime hington county steers at 8,30 to 8,60.

Smith had 9 head of common Butler ty steers; sold 2 at 6½—balance held .

Shambery sold 16 head of prime to exhio steers at 8¼ to 9.

ffman sold 5 head Butler county x.

ith & Talmage retailed 18 head of coniion stock at 7,50 to 8,25.

hn Kerwin reports having bonght 20 bulls at 4 to 6,75. Some af the dealeport that John is even a worse buyer Hines himself.

s. McAllister sold 19 head of small ed Western Reserve stock for C. A. yer at 5,25 to 8,20.

olmes, Lafferty & Co. report having about 144 head on sale; when we left yards they had not sold cut; they quote 50 to 9.

arks & Traurman report 76 head Chicattle at 6 to 8.

eenwald & Kahn report retailing 40 Chicago steers at 8 to 9,25; wholesaled Yengling, 2 at 8, and 14 at 8,90.

aas & Kraus retailed 40 head at 5 75.

yers & Needy 48 head of common to a Ohio steers at 6 to 9,40—sold 7 head loses & Co. at the last named figure.

. Verner sold 18 head of prime to exsteers for Doud at 8,25 to 9,25.

Whittlesey sold 18 head of mixed tern Reserve stock at 5,25 to 7¾.

C. Crum bought from Holmes, Laf & Co., for a New Jersey butcher, 19 of good Iowa steers, averaging 1,100, and $5 off.

O. Campbell sold 32 head of prime ois steers, fed for some time in Ohio, oud, at 8,50.

dges & Taylor sold 54 head of prime ois cattle for Middleworth at an aver of 5 cents, and 11 head for Thompson 75.

akely & Bro. had 34 head of Butler ty (Pa.) stock, about one-half of which bulls; sold the bulls at 4 to 5c, and the nce at 4½ to 6c.

rwin & Bro. had 13 head of Butler ty steers, which they thought would age 6¼.

inner & Sheitemental sold 10 head of er county bulls at 4c.

SHEEP AND LAMBS.

here was again a very full supply, of p and Lambs on sale to-day, and with nprovement in the demand, the market fully as hard as it was last week if not worse. The butchers in consequence he oppressively hot weather, did not as freely as they did last week, and e was not much inquiry for shipment; e was one Philadelphia buyer in attend, but he did not buy any, as most of fat Sheep were taken by the butchers. tail prices, and as for the common and ior grades, of which there was an dant supply, he did not want. Lambs also dull and if anything a shade r. The following is a partial report of Sales:

RIVER NEWS.

Both rivers continue to recede steadily at this point with three and a half feet in the Monongahela, and scant five feet in the Allegheny. Sunday and Monday were the two warmest days we have had this summer; the thermometer at noon yesterday indicating ninety degrees in the shade.

The Julia No. 2, from Zanesville, is the only arrival we have to report; she returns to-day as usual at 4 p. m.

The St. Marys, for Cincinnati, and R. C. Gray, for Louisville, departed yesterday afternoon with about all the freight they could take on the water. Unless there is a rise, it is not likely that the St. Marys will attempt to come back.

The Argosy, for Cincinnati, cleared on Sunday with a fair trip.

The Wauanita, Capt. Thos Shuman, will positively leave for St. Louis this forenoon, and passengers and shippers should bear this in mind.

The Glendale, which boat left here on Friday night for St. Louis with a cargo of railroad iron, grounded twice between here and wheeling. She succeeded in getting off however, in each instance, and will doubtless reach her destination without further difficulty.

The Bayard, Captain Asa S. Shepard, is the regular packet for Parkersburg to-day, leaving promptly at noon.

The Sallie, on her recent down trip from Fort Benton, made the run from Omaha to St. Louis in fifty hours—distance eight hundred miles. This is certainly pretty tall running, being sixteen miles per hour, including stoppages.

Mr. Wm. Romack, mate of the Argosy, and who had both of his legs broken by the breaking of a line on that boat on Sunday, was better yesterday, having come to himself again. A negro who was also injured at the same time, and was sent to the Marine Hospital for treatment. The accident was a very severe one, and, even if he recovers, it will be some time before Mr. Romack will be able to get about again, or resume his vocation. The mate and deckhands of a steamboat are very much exposed during low water, as there is always considerable sparring, and the parting of a line is generally attended with serious consequences.

The Dubuque Herald of Thursday contains the following item: "The officers of the Northern Line and Northwestern Union packet companies held a meeting in Chicago this week on business relating to the respective lines, the result of which has not been made public. The general impression prevails that a compromise will be effected and rates advanced to their former standard by both companies." The president of the Northwest Union line, Captain Cavidson, arrived here yesterday. The arrangement come to possesses no point of special interest to the public at large.

A patent has been applied for, by a gentleman in Detroit, Michigen, which, according to his views, will revolutionize the system of propulsion by steam. His plan consists of four iron air-right cylanders, cone-shaped at the ends, which run the entire length of the boat. In these cylinders are shafts, on which are adjusted continuous screw threads answering for buckets. With these he expects to be able to propel a boat at the rate of fifty miles an hour.

On the last trip of the Marble City, a green ehap was fleeced out of all his money by a gambler, who smillingly proposed a friendly game of eucre just to pass away time. He had just settled in Missouri, and was returning to Mississippi for his wife. His loss was three hundred and fifty dollars. The gambler disappeared from the boat at Hickman, just as the passengers were about to make him fork over.

The Underwriter has succeeded in raising the Champion, sunk at Chenault's Reach.

The St. Louis Republican of Saturday says:—The Ocean Wave, reported destroyed by fire in yesterday's Republican, was a small side-wheel steamer, built at Pittsburgh in 1855, by Capt. Waldo P. Marsh, for the Illinois river trade, but purchased in 1856 by Orrin Smith for the Minnesota Packet Co., since which time she has been playing in the Upper Mississippi. Last winter, however, she made a run from Dubuque to New Orleans with a two of barges, and was so long on the trip that the crew were not recognized on their return, so much had they been changed by time and hard work.

THE WEEKLY GAZETTE, issued on Wednesdays and Saturdays, is the best and cheapest family newspaper in Pennsylvania. It presents each week forty-eight columns of solid reading matter. It gives the fullest as well as the most reliable market reports of any paper in the State. Its files are used exclusively by the Civil Courts of Allegheny county for reference in important issues to determine the ruling prices in the markets at the time of the business transaction in dispute. Terms: Single copy, one year, $1.50; in clubs of five, $1,25; in clubs of ten, $1,15, and one free to the getter up of the club. Specimen copies sent free to any address.

WE PRINT on the inside pages of this morning's GAZETTE: Second page: Poetry, Ephemeris, and other Matters. Third Page: Allegheny Cattle Market, Financial Matters in New York and other Foreign Markets, River News. Sixth Page: City Finance and Trade, Produce and Petroleum Markets. Seventh Page: Farm, Garden and Household.

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 140¾.

"TRUE LIGHTS" is the name of the Grant and Colfax Campaign Club recently organized at Freeport, Ill. It is officered by a Captain, First and Second Lieutenants and Sergeants. Their uniform consists of oil-cloth navy caps, oil-cloth capes, and torches, similar to those of the "Wide Awakes" of 1860. They mean work, and that is what all Republicans everywhere ought to prepare for immediately.

THE votes of the House yesterday indicate a decided inclination to shelve the very elaborate tax-bill which has been for some days under discussion, and to replace it by a special measure, leaving out the administrative sections of the present bill or even, perhaps, cutting it down to its whisky and tobacco sections merely and passing it in that shape. Such is said to be the only bill which can pass the Senate at this session.

We do not think it is seriously intended to do more with Mr. Packer than attempt to concentrate the vote of Pennsylvania which gives serious tokens of breaking in upon the unit arrangement.—Post.

What is the matter? Are Pendleton and "those bonds" to be repudiated by other counties as well as Allegheny? Or has the Hancock party sueceeded in drawing off the greater number of delegates? Or is Old Greenbacks to be master of the situation? Perhaps the Republic, which now appears to be the Democratic organ here, can shed some light upon this dark point.

THE English Ministry finds it impossible to temporise with the political situation and has determined upon a dissolution of Parliament in October, to be followed by a new election immediately. An earlier date was not necessary to be fixed upon, since the period is close at hand for the regular close of the present session, the vacation continuing to the autumn. Thus the summer will be in effect, occupied by the canvass, of which it may be anticipated that its interest and popular excitement will transcend anything known in English politics since the agitation which closed with the repeal of the Corn Laws.

THE President nominates Mr. WM. A. EVARTS, of New York, recently one of his counsel, for the office of Attorney General. The nominee is a lawyer of unquestioned ability, and, apart from certain extra-professional zeal which he recently exhibited in behalf of his distinguished client, a Republican of the most decidedly radical politics. His speeches in the canvass of last year in New York were most spirited and emphatic denunciations of the entire policy of the President. There is no doubt that his nomination will be confirmed and, as little that a few months of familiarity with the Executive head of the government, in the discharge of the regular duties of his office, will effectually cure Mr. EVARTS of his new-born admiration for his late client.

IF MR. CHASE loses the Democratic nomination for the Presidency, he may thank his own reiteration of the doctrine of universal suffrage for it. His letter which some indiscreet friend published in a New York paper, re-asserting that principle with great precision, has materially damaged his prospects. A Washington dispatch which we published yesterday, purporting to give his present platform, covered up that doctrine under the specious verbosity of a "relegation of the suffrage question to the respective States under the Constitution." This is all very well, if it were all of it. The Convention would swallow that platform without a grimance, but, viewed as an effort to put his previous utterances out of mind, it will fail of its purpose. Democrats of the old school of prejudice and ignorance have taken the alarm; they are quite right in identifying Mr. CHASE with the extreme principle which is so obnoxious to them, and if he should receive the nomination, they will drop away from his support thicker and faster than "autumn leaves in Vallambrosa."

POLITICAL DISINTEGRATION.

The opinion has been held in some quarters that political parties in this country are soon to be disintegrated, re-chrystalizing in new forms, abandoning the exhausted issues of the past, and shaping their future aims under the light which experience affords, and which the wonderful progress of events in the eight or ten past years has made so powerfully luminous. The same speculations insist that the cohesion, which still unites the great parties respectively, is only the natural result of the conflict which the political aspects of the rebellion have presented, and that, with the waning memory of a struggle which, like all other past political experiences, even the most critical, will, sooner or later, be forgotten by a people so mercurial as ours, this cohesion is fast losing its power, and the parties, which it has heretofore united, are on the verge of a more or less complete resolution into their primary elements. These speculations have much plausibility, and some little truth at the bottom. For example, there can be no doubt that the persistent obstinacy with which one party, the Democratic, insists upon occupying reactionary ground,—proposing an absolute obstruction to the development of political truth in the progress of events, and bent upon reiterating the dogmas and upon re-establishing the policy which has once come so near proving fatal to the Republic, and from which only the strong common sense and the unselfish patriotism of the great body of the people have saved us—does exert a powerful influence in maintaining the solidarity of the Republican party. The Union, its perpetuity as a whole, its protection against all assaults whether political or armed, and the complete identification of the Democratic party with the principles and with that overt act of armed rebellion which have menaced that Union heretofore, and continue to threaten it now, in a more pacific but no less dangerous guise—here is certainly the keystone in the arch of Republican politics. And this holds Republicanism together, a solid massive pile which no load can crush, and which all the angry elements shall beat powerless against forever. The Republican party embodies the simple principle of Patriotic Duty, of a single-minded and devoted fidelity to the Union against all its enemies, and it will continue to exist and to grow stronger, so long as the Democratic party remains aggressive, persisting in its old policy of disloyal opposition, and still rejecting the results which Liberty and Law have accomplished at so much cost.

The time may come—we confess we have little hope of it soon—when the Democratic party shall be wiser, and accepting the unconquerable facts of experience, shall forego any further opposition to the progress of Personal Freedom and to the complete vindication of Constitutional Order. Then, there would be barely a possibility that the Republican lines might be relaxed: then, relieved from the Democratic antagonism, with its powerful outside pressure removed, our party might be more free to yield to the predicted tendency to disintegration; but this is not likely. The elementary Republican principle, of devotion to the Union beyond and above all other considerations, is a principle too simple, too obvious, too natural and in itself too indestructible; it will live irresistible in its matured vigor, and never to be unrepresented by a popular and powerful organization. No other single idea can sustain a political party; but this is the magnificent and only possible exception. The party of the Union will be co-existent with the Union itself. Its organization, will, as times change, take up or abandon minor issues, as they shall illustrate the leading convictions of patriotism, in connection with the requirements of the hour, but, whatever comes, the great party will continue to muster its solid columns about the flag of the Republic.

While there can be no Republican disorganization so long as the Democracy occupies its historical position of offense, there are very clear indications that the latter party is on the eve of its dissolution. Apart from its prevailing spirit of disloyalty to the Union, it has no other common ground for its masses to stand upon. When it ceases to be a party of opposition, it ceases to be a party at all, for no other common idea remains to it. Once, united upon all questions, facile under the hands of its leaders, and accustomed to differ only upon personal preferences, which, however settled, never imperilled the party success, forgetting all strifes at the first sound of the long-roll of the battle drum, the party preserved its national character, maintained its harmonious efficiency, and achieved its successive victories. The case stands far otherwise now. It is united upon no national principle; on the contrary, the party is racked by the sharpest doctrinal conflicts, from which no possible solution can redeem it, and it awaits their formal adjudication only to renew these conflicts with a fatal resolution. The Democracy are not the party of progress; but progress has nevertheless touched its organization at last; it has reached a conflict of principle for the first time in its history, thus illustrating the march of ideas. In this conflict it meets dissolution, and this illustrates how hollow and unsubstantial has been the basis upon which its organization was built. The magic of Ithuriel's wand is emulated, in the promptitude with which the very first application of a sound and practical idea dissolves that mass of the Democracy. Its mighty reality is shown to be but the airy and baseless fabric of a dream, disenchanted and vanishing at the touch of a solitary truth. Its mingled elements are to be separated forever, precipitated into new forms and awaiting new and more attractive combinations.

With the canvass of 1868, the history of the Democratic party will be written. Nor may it even survive until November. The signs of an earlier dissolution are revealed, and, although its last breath should feebly linger until the autumn, its beauty and vigor are already departing, to be absorbed in the masses who choose GRANT as their leader to a final victory for the Union.

A SENSIBLE RESOLUTION.

The Democrats of the Southern States are really in advance of the Northern Democratic leaders in several important respects. For instance, the Alabama Democratic State Convention, which met at Montgomery on Thursday, adopted the following resolution as part of its platform:

"Resolved, That slavery having been prohibited in the State of Alabama by a convention of the people thereof, held in September, 1865, we hereby again proclaim our faithful adherence to that ordinance, and we assure the people of the United States that there are no laws in force in this State, enacted by our authority, which make any distinction in the protection which they give to the person and property of both races; and we hereby declare our solemn purpose that these laws shall be faithfully and impartially administered as soon as the military are withdrawn and we are permitted to manage our own affairs."

There are promises made in this resolution which scarcely any Northern Democratic Convention has yet made, or offered.

THE DEATH OF COL. SAMUEL A. GILBERT, a gallant officer of the Ohio Volunteer line in the late war, is announced. He was a native of Zanesville, and died at St. Paul, Minn., on the 10th, in his 44th year. Col. G. was employed in the United States Coast Survey at the outbreak of the rebellion, but, obtaining a leave of absence, hastened home and was commissioned as Lt. Col. of the 24th Ohio, and after a few months, as Colonel of the 44th Ohio, with which he was arduous service in Western Virginia, Kentucky and East Tennessee, latterly commanding seven regiments in a brigade said to be the best in the army. He will be remembered as the officer whose prompt action in dispersing a convention of Kentucky secessionists, at Frankfort, contributed so decisively to the retention of that State in its loyalty to the Union. At Knoxville, he was Post Commander during the celebrated siege. The records of the War Department and the current history of military operations in the Southwest up to April, 1864, when his declining health required him to retire, bear the highest testimony to his fidelity, skill and efficiency as an officer, and his retirement was universally regretted. The seeds of the disease, consumption, which at last proved fatal, were first sown in the exposures and sufferings which he underwent as a member of an expedition in behalf of the Colombian government, in '66, for the survey of a route for a ship-canal through the valley of the Magdalena River.

A CLERK in the Paymaster's office at Washington has been arrested, upon clear proof of his connection with a recent attempt to blackmail Mr. JOHNSON'S office-holders all over the country. He invited pecuniary contributions to promote the objects of the "National Union" Committee, when no such Committee existed. He will be punished for the attempted swindle. In the meantime, the Pittsburgh Post editorially asserted that the whole dodge was a "radical scheme" to elect Gen. GRANT. Its news columns have since given this misstatement a plain refutation, but the fabrication remains editorially uncontradicted. We called our neighbor's attention to the matter immediately, and invited the proper correction, But the Post persists in its omission to retract a statement which it now knows to have been false. That journal, now that it has lost the confidence of its party, can afford to be truthful, and we again urge it not to remain under the imputation of persisting in a misrepresentation, after its falsehood is made clear. We will answer its "civil questions" as soon as this cloud upon its reputation is removed.

—A Presbyterian Re-union meeting was held in Rev. John Hall's church, New York, Sunday evening. Addresses strongly favoring the cementing of former divisions between the Old and New School bodies were delivered by Revs. Crosby, Adams, Shedd, Smith and others. The attendance was large.

CHARTIERS VALLEY RAILROAD.

It is believed that the completion of this road may be secured, if the people most deeply interested, those living along the line in Allegheny and Washington counties and in these cities, shall succeed in raising the comparatively small sum of $300,000 toward the expenses of its final completion. It is upon that condition that the Pennsylvania Central Company undertakes to finish the road for use. The ability and good faith of that corporation are not to be questioned. Very properly, the citizens of the region to be traversed regard this proposition as a very liberal one, and are making extraordinary efforts to meet its terms. Thus far, they are not successful. The country is at this time comparatively poor, and there have been periods when a half million of dollars could be easier made up along the line than the sum specified now. We understand, however, that the country feels confident of its ability to make up $200,000 of the amount. So much has not yet been positively secured, but the friends of the new road along the line feel themselves able to guarantee that it shall be done. For the residue, of $100,000, they ask the aid of the business men of these cities, and a delegation from Washington and the country this side of it, will shortly be re-inforced by a committee of our own citizens, and will canvass these cities for the deficient amount. We bespeak for the enterprise the just, not simply the generous, support of our people. The Pennsylvania Central Company, in aiding the project at a very considerable cost, has a right to ask that it shall be recognized and sustained by an adquate exhibition of local favor, and the sum named is very low, reference being had to the total cost of work and its importance, when completed, to the business interests of all this region. The country has done and will do all it can; failing of entire success, it has a right to ask this very limited aid from these wealthy cities, which could well afford to donate the amount asked for outright, the benefits to its business resulting from the road when finished repaying it amply in a twelve-month. We trust, therefore, that every business man in these cities will be prepared to respond to the appeal.

THE ISRAELITES AND GEN. GRANT.

The annexed communication, from a highly respectable and influential Jewish citizen of Pittsburgh, disposes most effectively of a Copperhead slander upon the great leader of the Union armies. There can be no doubt that Mr. STRAUS states the facts, concerning the true sentiments and the political sympathies of all honorable Israelites of good standing, not only in this community, but throughout the loyal States:

PITTSBURGH, June 15, 1868.

MESSRS. EDITORS GAZETTE: There is a great effort made in certain sections of the country by some evil designed persons (better known as the Democratic party) to cast a bad repute upon the Jewish people in their trying to make the public believe, that we, as a body, will or should oppose the election of General U. S. Grant. General Grant needs no defence of mine. His acts throughout the war, as well as since its close, speak for themselves, and these acts are so grand, so noble and statesman-like, that we can well afford and should overlook one fault, especially when we consider the circumstances under which it was done.

Let me assure you, and through your valuable paper all our fellow citizens, that every honorable, honest and loyal Israelite will work heart and soul for the success of the Republican ticket, as we do not vote for men but for principle. Furthermore, the writer knows this to be a fact, that, as a general thing, every honorable Israelite of good standing and who is proud of his good name in this and other cities throughout the country, feels himself insulted if classed with those who were hanging around our camps during the war in anything but honorable positions and never have been recognized, and they would not now be seen in company of those who call meetings and pass resolutions aiming against the success of the Republican party.

We may well say, "The mountains went to labor and brought forth a mouse," and to this will all the labor amount to of our opponents in their endeavors about Grant's order. I am sure had he been their candidate we would not have heard anything about it. Grant, Colfax and glorious success is now the watchword in common with our fellow citizens.

The writer offers his services from now till after the election in any way he can best serve the cause of the Republican party.

Yours respectfully,
S. STRAUS, 124 Second street.

The New Tariff Bill.

In the House of Representatives on Wedney Mr. Moorhead reported, by authority of the Committee on Ways and Means, the following bill to increase the revenue from duties on imports, and to equalize exports and imports:

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, etc., That from and after the passage of this act, in lieu of the duties heretofore imposed by law on the articles hereinafter mentioned, there shall be levied, collected, and paid on the articles herein enumerated and provided for, imported from foreign countries, the following specified duties, that is to say:

On all copper imports in the form of ore, 3 cents on each pound of fine copper contained therein; on all regulus of copper and all black or coarse copper 4 cents on each pound of fine copper contained therein; on all old copper fit only for remanufacture, 4 cents per pound; on all copper in plates, bars, ingots, pigs, or in other forms not manufactured or herein enumerated, 5 cents per pound. on nickel, nickel oxide, and alloy of nickel on copper, 40 cents per pound; on nickel matter speiss, 30 cents per pound; on nickel, 40 per centum ad valorem: on aluminium and all its alloys, 50 per centum ad valorem; on albata or white metal, argentine, German silver, and the like mixed metals, 4 per centum ad valorem; on zinc or spelter, 2½ cents per pound; on zinc in sheets, 3½ cents a pound. In addition to the rates now charged and collected on all descriptions and qualities of steel, there shall be charged and collected 1½ cents per pound, and on steel scraps 1 cent per pound; on iron or steel wire rope made of wire over No. 16 wire guage in size, 6 cents per pound; made of wire less in size than No, 16 and not less than No.25, 7 cents per pound; made of wire less in size than No. 25 wire guage, 8 cents per pound; provided that iron wire rope galvanized shall pay ½ of 1 per cent per pound in addition to the foregoing rates; and provided that all wire covered with silk, cotton or other material, shall pay 5 cents per pound in addition to the rates of duty herein imposed on iron wire not covered. On all descriptions of iron rolled, hammered or made into shapes, whether in forms of T, L and H, and known as angle iron, or barrel or baling hoops, partially or wholly manufactured, or any forms or shapes of iron not provided for in the present tariff, excepting round, square and flat iron, and all descriptions of plate, sheet, polished and galvanized iron, a specific duty of 2¾ cents per pound in lieu of the duties now imposed; and on all descriptions of iron thinner than No. 5 wire gauge, and on all rounds and squares less than 11-16 of an inch, round or square, and on all descriptions of sheet or plate iron thinner than No. 10 wire guage, ¾ cent per pound in addition to the present duties. On galvanized and polished sheet iron of all descriptions, 3¾ cents per pound in lieu of the duties now imposed. On wrought iron in nuts, bolts or rivets, other than screw bolts, not exceeding 4 inches in length, wholly or partially finished, of all descriptions, 3½ cents per pound. On sal soda, crystals and all crude carbonates of soda, 1 cent per pound. On glass ware, plain, mould and pressed, not cut, engraved or painted, 50 per centum ad valorem. —Philadelphia has homicides and suicides. Henry Johnson was fatally stabbed in a political dispute by a man named Buck, who surrendered himself to the authorities. Two men committed suicide by shooting themselves, one of them a prisoner in the county jail. Nelson Stewart, a young man, died from the effects of a blow inflicted by some person unknown on Sunday evening.

CONVALESCENCE.

After a disease has been conquered, there is still the weakness that it leaves behind it to be removed. Convalescence is a tedious affair. If the enfeebled and flaccid muscles, the shattered nerves, the thin and watery blood could speak, they would cry for help. In too many cases such help as is given them is not of the right kind. The fiery stimulants of commerce do harm. They kindle a temporary flame, which is a mockery. Their effect passes, and the last state of him who uses them is worse than the first. Not such is the effect of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. There is no drawback to its toning properties. It has been found THE GREAT MEDICINE OF THE AGE for sustaining and bracing up the enfeebled constitution no matter how much debilitated—as it not only bestows strength, but soothes the nervous system and allays all excitement of the brain. While this excellent preparation possesses such effective properties, it is perfectly safe and is agreeable to the taste. Attempts have been made to rival it. They have failed. Can it be necessary to say why they have failed? Ask the recovered dyspeptics, bilious sufferers, victims of fever and ague and nervous subjects who have experienced its effects what they think of it. Ask them, and be guided by what they say. As a household medicine it is available at all times in cases of indigestion; bilious and other fevers, and all diseases arising from an impure condition of the stomach or liver.

ADVICE TO CONSUMPTIVES.

DR. KEYSER says: "You want air, not physic; you want pure air, not medicated air; you want plenty of nutrition, such as plenty of meat and bread will give; physic has no nutriment; gasping for air cannot cure you; monkey capers in a gymnasium cannot cure you; and stimulants cannot cure you. If you want to get well, go in for BEEF AND OUT-DOOR AIR."—Republic.

He says further: Don't put off the first symptoms. "A little leak may sink a great ship;" a small sore in the throat, lungs or liver will soon involve the whole body. How often do we see people put off for a year or two what in the beginning could have been remedied for a trifle. The Doctor's advice is, and always has been, attend to the first symptoms of disease. Do not let the constitution become a wreck before you begin to mend; if you do, ten to one there will be no remedy. There is a remedy for every disease if taken in time. A slight sore throat or cough may be removed with comparatively little trouble; but a constitution, sinking and breaking to pieces by allowing these little troubles to accumulate is not so easy. Dr. Keyser's mode of lung sounding is unique, and as thorough as it is unique. There is not a spot or space over the whole surface of the lungs that he does not sound and investigate, and by so doing is enabled to supply the appropriate remedy.

IMPORTANT AUCTION SALE OF

BUILDING LOTS,

And Sites for Suburban Residences.

HOMES FOR ALL.

Hoboken is situated on the north side of the Allegheny river, seven miles above the city, and on the line of the Western Pennsylvania Railroad. This property is unsurpassed for advantages of location, beautiful romantic scenery, air and water. It undoubtedly possesses rare attractions for those whose cultivated tastes and better judgment lead them away to seek for homes free from the dust, smoke and noise of the city. It is laid out in lots to suit all purchasers. That portion between the railroad and river is laid out in lots of 25 by 120 feet. Above the railroad, up to Ninth street, are four ranges of lots, 40 by 160 feet. Above Ninth street one range of half acre lots. Above this are several ranges of acre lots. The balance will be sold in quantities to suit purchasers, for suburban residences. This is indeed the most attractive sale of real estate that was ever offered at public auction. The lots will be sold without reserve a chance to purchase a home at your price. Attend the sale,

On Saturday, June 20th, 1868,

AT 2½ O'CLOCK P. M.,

FOR SALE.

A RIVER BOTTOM FARM OF 76 ACRES, 19 miles from the city, in Elizabeth township, Allegheny county, Pa., on the Youghiogheny river, one-half mile from Elrod's Station, on the Connellsville railroad; near churches, schools, stores, &c., in the flourishing villages of Boston and Green Oak. The improvements are a two-story brick house of six rooms, hall and cellar, a good frame bank barn with stabling underneath, and other outbuildings; a well of good standing water at the door, and several standing springs of water on the farm, and an orchard of 700 trees of selected fruits of apples, cherries, pears, peaches, quinces and grapes. This property being located near the line of the railroad, within one hour's ride of the city, makes it very desirable for gardening or a dairy farm; it is also a good and beautiful location for country homes near the city, lying immediately on the river, on the opposite side from the railroad. The West Newton Accommodation and other trains on the railroad afford certain and frequent opportunities of daily communication to and from this city. Will be sold as a whole or in lots of one acre or more, to suit purchasers.

Also, A FARM OF 173 ACRES, situated in St. Clair township, Westmoreland county, Pa., near the line of the Pennsylvania Railroad at Houston Station. The improvements are a two-story frame house, with six rooms and good cellar, a frame bank barn 40 by 60 feet, and other outbuildings. There is on the place a young apple and peach orchard; 120 acres cleared land, divided into fields of convenient size, a large portion of which are well set in clover and timothy; the residue of said tract covered with good timber. It is well watered and underlaid with coal and limestone, and is convenient to churches, schools, stores, mills and blacksmith shops. A real good bargain is offered in this excellent farm; and with it will be sold all the personal property on the premises, consisting of horses, cows, stock cattle, hogs and poultry, harness, gears, wagon, plows, farming implements and household and kitchen furniture. Together will be sold very low and on easy terms, to a responsible purchaser.

Also, a desirable and very fertile Tract of Land of 158 ACRES AND 25 PERCHES, in Elizabeth Tp., Allegheny county, Pa., on the line of the Hempfield railroad, and one and one-half miles from the Connellsville railroad at Suter's Station. On this farm are 40 acres of superior white oak timber, which alone is now worth one-half the price asked for the whole tract. The improvements are a log house, frame barn, good fencing, and an apple orchard of good fruit. It is well watered and underlaid with limestone and flag stone of a superior quality, with stone coal for the use of the farm.

Also, The best FARM in Fairfield township, Westmoreland county, Pa., of 250 ACRES, about six miles south of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad at Bolivar Station. The improvements are two large hewed log dwellings; one of the largest and best frame barns in the township; two apple orchards, in good bearing condition; corn crib, wagon-shed and other outbuildings. The whole farm is under a high state of cultivation; fencing all in first rate order, and the land of the best quality of limestone soil, about 200 acres of which is cleared and the residue of the tract in good timber, such as white oak, rock oak, hickory, walnut and beech. This property will be sold very cheap and on good terms, as the owner wishes to engage in other business. For particulars enquire of FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, June 15, 1868.

Last Friday's statement of the banks of New York, shows a heavy decline in the specie of eleven millions, being the lowest point reached for many years. This, together with the small stock now held by private bankers, and speculators seems to be the main reason for the advance, a more remote cause for the continued firmness however, seems to be to continuing heavy imports, between 5 and 6 millions dollars Gold value per week, Goverment bonds have suddenly but not unexpectedly advanced to-day, about one per cent. for the 1865s and 1367s, five-twentties, which are very scarce in the market on account of the delay in getting bonds from the printing office. The advance here is expected to have a favorable influence on the market in Europe, and cause a sufficient rise there, to enable shipments of bonds to be made at a margin to the seller. Very few bonds are offered for sale in the market, and the demand at present prices is entirely confined to New York and Philadelphia. Parties who still hold some bonds now expired and on which the interest ceases are very slow in coming forward for either exchange or sale, over-loeking entirely, that they lose a premium of about 9¾ per cent., and the interest on their money by delaying conversion.

The stock market is firmer and aciive, but prices do not change materially except for North Western common and preferred, and New York and Erie shares. Express shares are depressed, but Mining shares are higher and very active.

Money is scarcer, rnd 12 per cent. is readily paid for even well endorsed paper of 4 or 6 months, and 1½ per month is nothing extraordinary.

Closing quotations as received by Ph. R. Mertz, were as follows:

Gold, 140¼; 1881 bonds, 117; 1862 5-20s, 112¾; 1864 do, 110⅝; 1865 do, 110¾; Consols, 113¾; 10-40s, 106¼; 7-30s, 109⅝.

Railroads—Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 88½; Fort Wayne, 111¾; North Western, common 70¾; North Western—preferred, 83¾; New York Central, 135; Erie, 69¾; Old Southern, 89½; Ohio & Mississippi, 29½; Merchants Union Express, 28¾; Western Union Telegraph, 37¼. Mining Shares—Corydon, 34; Quartz Hill, 120.

—A London journal has the following remarks upon the failure of the American banking house of Belding, Keith & Co., of London:

The disgraceful failure of this firm has caused the American community both surprise and indignation. At first, about three years back, the title was Keith, Wayne & Eastman, but Mr. Belding joined it some two years ago, when Wayne and Eastman withdrew, and the small sum brought into the concern by the new partner was sufficient to tide over the period of depression which followed on the great crisis of May, 1866, the liabilities being then inconsiderable. Offices were taken in Lombard street, and with an extensive circular, and all the publicity that posters, books and advertisements could give, the house, as thus formed, commenced its career as American bankers and commission agents. It appears that Mr. Keith proceeded a short time ago to New York, to raise, if possible, £10,000, to float the company through its difficulties, but, failing in this, Beldirg, the partner, who remained in London, seems to have decamped with all he could lay his hands upon. He announced this in a laconic notice, dated the 9th instant, wherein he informed those it concerned that Mr. Keith having failed to raise a single penny, he (G. W. Belding) had "found it expedient to take the small balance of cash on hand to try if he could do any better." The small balance refeared to is supposed to have been some £10,000. It appears that last Saturday he drew the balance at the bank, amounting to £3,000, having previously obtained cash for a check for £,500. A valuable deposit of American gold lately left with him for safe keeping was against the owner's express instructions exchanged for English coin, and appropriated. A meeting of his creditors was held on Thursday, and the facts that transpired were not of a reasonable nature.

—The Philadelphia Ledger, of Saturday, says: Money is very abundant, and it is found difficult to employ all balances at late rates. Round amounts have been offered at 3½ per cent. on approved collateral; the most general rate, however, on stocks, is 4 to 5 per cent. It is somewhat anomalous that the prevailing extreme ease in money should not have the effect of stimulating speculation. The feeling of caution appears so to predominate among the professional operators that they are almost entirely out of the market.

—Closing quotations received by James T. Brady & Co.:

Chicago Cattle Market.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

CHICAGO, June 15.—Beef cattle dull and nominal. Hogs are dull and unchanged.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, June 15, 1868.

The general market continue dull, and devoid of any new features, worthy of particular notice. As general thing, the demand for all of the leading commodities is very much restricted, while so far as values are concerned, there are no important changes.

BUTTER—Fresh packed Butter is in fair demand, with sales at 23 to 25. No Roll Butter in market, the weather being entirely too hot to move it in that shape.

EGGS—Continue scarce and in fair demand and tending upward; sales reported to-day at 28to 30.

POTATOES—Sales of Peach Blows in small lots at $1,25 to $1,30 per bush. New Potatoes $6,50 to 7 per bbl.

DRIED FRUIT—Continues excessively dull with a supply largely in excess of the demand; small sales at 6 to 7 cts for apples and 11½ 12½ for Peaches.

HAY—Is dull but unchanged at $15 to $20 pe; ton, as to quality.

GRAIN—There is a fair demand for Winter Wheat at $2,25 to $2,30 for Red, and 5 to 8c higher for White; farmers growl very much at being compelled to accept these figures, when it occurs to them that a few weeks since they could have realized 50c per bushel more. Oats quiet and unchanged; we continue to quote at 78 to 80c on wharf and track, and the usual advance for small lots in store. Corn is dull; sale of 2 cars Shelled, in bulk, at $1, and 240 sks Shelled and Ear at $1,05. Rye, in the absence of sales, may be quoted at $1,50 to $1,55.

MILL FEED—Is dull but unchanged; we continue to quote at $1,80 to $2 for Middlings, and $1,40 to $1,50 for Bran

CHEESE—Sales of Hamburg at 14c, and Factory at 15c.

LARD OIL—Is quoted at $1,23 to $1,2 for No. 2, and $1,43 to $1,45 for No. 1.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is quiet and unchanged; 13½c for Shoulders; 15½c to 17½c for Ribbed and Clear Sides; 17½c for Plain Hams; 19c for Plain Sugar Cured, and 19¾ to 20c for Canvassed do. Lard, 18 to 18½c, for prime kettle rendered. Dried Beef, 22 to 23c. Mess Pork, $28 to $28,50.

FLOUR—There is no improvement to note in the demand, and while the market is dull and weak, prices are without quotable change. We continue to quote at $10,00 to $10,50 for Spring Wheat; $11,50 to $12 for Winter Wheat, and $14 to $15 for fancy brands. Winter Wheat, extra, $9,00. Rye Flour, $9,50 to $10.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBUGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, June 15, 1868.

CRUDE—The market continues firm, and with considerable inquiry and light offerings, prices have still further advanced. We can report one sale of 500 bbls, on spot, at 13c, and another of 5,000 bbls at 13½c, on spot; this last sale made quite a handsome profit to the seller, he having bought it at 10½c, giving him a margin of three cents per gallon, or one dollar and twenty cents per barrel. This, we believe, is the most extraordinary advance we had in this market for twelve months, or, perhaps longer, and the most noticeable feature connected with it, is the fact that it was generally unexpected. Oil City telegrams report the market firm and considearbly excited, and prices have still further advanced, $5,40 to $5,50 being the ruling quotations.

BEFINED—The market for refined oil, also, continues very firm, and, compared with Saturday, prices have still further advanced. The sales to-day reached nearly eight thousand barrels, in the aggregate, as follows: 1,000 bbls for last half of August at 33½c; 500 each from July to December at 33c; 300 for September at 33c, the buyer advancing $2 per barrel; 500, 15th to 31st July, and 500 15th to 31st August, on private terms; 500, spot, at 31c, and 1,000 August at 33c. We can also report a sale of 1,000 bbls Benzole, to be delivered between the 25th June and 15th of July, at 15c.

ARRIVALS—The arrivals of oil reported to-day were as follows:

New York Dry Goods Market.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

NEW YORK, June 14.—The weather is delightful, but there is still a limited inquiry for dry goods, and prices favor buyers, although no other decline worthy of observation is noticeable. All fancy goods are now put out on protection, and it is much easier to obtain larger discounts. In the meantime mills everywhere are reducing their production. All leading makes of light prints are selling at 12½c, except Spragues, which are held at 14; the Cocheco Mills are selling some good brands under Stafford Tucker at 22½, and the same price for Amoskeag; Greenwich prints are reduced to 11½c to-day; printing cloths are worth about 8⅝c, and heavy brown sheetings 16½a18½.

New York Cattle Market.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

NEW YORK, June 15.—Cattle; the receipts for the week amounted to 6,574 beeves, 1,948 sheep and lambs, and 16,456 hogs; the market opened depressed and closed firmer under moderate offerings, with a fair demand; extra, $17¾a18; prime, $17a17,70; fair to good, $15,25a16,75; inferior to ordinary, $14a16. Sheep and Lambs are quiet and 50c lower, ranging in prices from $3,50a7,75 for inferior to extras, sheared; Sheep and lambs, $10a14. Hogs, which became firmer at the latter part of last week, closed steady to-day, with sales being made at $8a9.

Philadelphia Cattle Market.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

PHILADELPHIA, June 15.—Beef Cattle in demand, prices unsettled and lower; 800 head sold at 10¼a11c for extra western steers; 9a10c for fair to good, and 5a8c for common. Sheep dull and lower; sales 6,000 at 5a6¼c gross. Hogs dull and lower; sales 300 at $12,50a14,00; the latter for prime corn fed.

Detroit Market.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

DETROIT, June 15.—Flour in moderate mand, at $12a12,50 for choice supperfine. Wheat lower; sales at $2,50 for No 1 white; sales moderate.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

Farm, Garden and Household.

THE Franklin Repository says a Hamilton township farmer sends us the following method of destroying cut-worms:

When the corn first appears above the surface of the ground, cut alder bushes and strew them over the field about a rod apart, placing them as near the corn hills as possible. If the worms are plenty, in a day or two you will find them gathered about the bushes when you can destroy them. They will leave the ground and crawl under the alder bushes and the corn will escape. This remedy is simple and easy, and requires but little time; all can be done during the leisure hours which every farmer sometimes has. I have tried this remedy and found it very effective. Farmers would do well, though, to plow corn ground in the fall when the exposure of the soil to the cold of winter will kill the insects which produce the worm.

A GENTLEMAN in Salem, Ohio, thinks he has discovered a method of saving plums from being destroyed by the curculio. If so, he has conferred a great benefit upon the lovers of good fruit. The Salem Republican states that last year he had in market some of the finest plums offered for sale. He preserved them from the sting of the curculio by simply burning tar under the trees at the time the fruit was shaping. He continued the process for three days, but thinks it would have been still better had he commenced a little earlier and burnt a few days longer. The process is a simple one and cheap. Swarms of the insects were seen leaving the trees as the fires were kindled. The result was a large, healthy and luscious crop of plums, while neighboring orchards nearly or quite failed. We commend to our readers a trial of this method.

Shying Horses.

L. A. D. in the Scientific American, said that a horseman should never "shy" himself when the horse shies, or show the least nervousness, nor notice it in his horses, and far less to punish them for it, and adds:

Allow me, having had a great deal of experience in managing horses, to add another bit of advice to nervous horsemen. Whenever they notice their horse directing his ears to any point whatever, or indicating the slightest disposition to become afraid, let them, instead of pulling the rein to bring the horse towards the object causing its nervousness, pull it on the other side. This will instantly divert the attention of the horse from the object which is exciting his suspicion, and in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred the horse will pay no more attention to the object from which he will fly away if forcibly driven to it by pulling the wrong rein.

Hints to Poulterers.

1. Secure yourselves by keeping no more stock than you can feed and care for in the best manner, and make choice of the best stock.
2. Keep Brahmas, Dorkings, or Boltons.
3. Feed your grain or vegetables hot.
4. Be sure the fowls have gravel and shells, and the shells half burnt are better than raw. One hundred fowls will consume a peck a week.
5. Feed meat, if possible, it being very natural.
6. Choose perfect eggs for breeding purposes.
6. Let your hands be free from grease while handling eggs to be set. An egg besmeared with broken yolk will not hatch.
8. Put a newspaper in the bottom of the nest designed for setting eggs; chaff or fine straw on top.
9. Brahma chickens need but little care; Dorkings more; Bolton or Creole most.
10. Smear the sides and breasts of the old mother with oil, composed of half whale and half petroleum; do this the first night after leaving the nest. This is a prevention for all the ills chickens are heir to.
11. Give clean water and small sized grain (excepting rye).—G. A. L., in Rural New Yorker.

Seasonable Receipts.

[From the Western Rural.]

STRAWBERRY CHARLOTTE RUSSE.—Fill a glass or china dish with sliced sponge cake, and pour on it sufficient juice of ripe strawberries sweetened with white sugar, to dissolve the cake; cover it and let it stand in a cool place. Beat to a stiff froth the whites of two or three eggs, add gradually to it powdered sugar till it is very thick, and flavor with strawberry juice. When the cake is all dissolved, pile the icing high upon it, smoothing it nicely with a broad bladed knife, frequently dipped in water.—Set the dish on ice or in a cool, dry place till wanted. When the icing is partly dry, it may be ornamented with large strawberries, stuck on in stairs, initial letters or other designs. This is a very pretty Charlotte, inexpensive and easily made, as it requires no cooking. Similar ones may be made of raspberries and of red currents.

ICE CREAM CAKE.—Two cups of white sugar, two cups of flour, six eggs, two teaspoonfuls of cream tartar, one teaspoonful of soda dissolved in two teaspoonfuls of hot water. Stir the flour; sugar and cream tartar well together; break the eggs in this mixture, then the soda and water. Boil them well together about five minutes.

For the cream, take one pint of milk, one and a half cups of sugar, half a cup of flour, two eggs. Boil the milk, beat together the sugar, eggs and flour, stir in a little milk; when the milk boils stir in this mixture. Salt a little and flavor to the taste.

Let both the cake and cream get perfectly cold, then cut the cake open and spread the cream between. ETTA E. REESE.

LIGHT TEA BUNS.—Take half a teaspoonful of tartaric acid, and the same quantity of bi-carbonate of soda, and rub them well into a pound of flour, through a hair sieve, if leasure permit. Then work into the flour two ounces of butter, and add two ounces of crushed and sifted lump sugar, also a quarter of a pound of currents or rasins, and (if liked) a few caraway-seeds. Having mixed all these ingredients well together, make a hole in the middle, and pour in a half pint of cold new milk; one egg, well beaten, mixed with the milk is a good improvement, though your buns will do without any. Mix quickly, and set your dough with a fork on baking pins. The buns will take about twenty minutes to bake. From these ingredients you ought to produce a dozen.

GINGERBREAD LOAF, TO BE EATEN WITH BUTTER, IF LIKED.—Stir a cupful of melted butter into two cupfuls of molasses, a tablespoonful of ginger, and a teaspoonful of cinnamon; sift some flour, and stir in just enough to make a stiff batter; dissolve a small piece of alum, the size of a kidney bean, in half a cupful of water; stir it in, and then add more flour. Put in as much flour as will make a dough nearly stiff enough to roll out on a board; have tin pans buttered, and the oven quite ready; mix a heaping teaspoonful of soda with half a cup of boiling water, and stir all up quickly; put the cakes in the oven at once, and use them when quite fresh. They should be brushed over with syrup when taken out of the oven.

FRENCH HONEY.—Break one pound of lump sugar into pieces; put it into a pan, add the yolks of six eggs and the whites of four, the juice of four lemons (and grate in the rinds of two), and a quarter of a pound of butter. Stir the ingredients well over a slow fire until the mixture becomes thick as honey. It will keep for a year if put into jars, tied down with paper, and kept in a cool, dry place. Good brown sugar may be used instead of white. It is most excellent to fill tarts with or to spread between layers of cake. J. T. H;

STRAWBERRY SHORT-CAKE.—One cup of sour cream, half a teaspoon of soda, flour sufficient to make a stiff dough, roll it out large enough to cover a large pie tin, bake it in a quick oven. When baked, split it open and spread it with butter, take a pint of strawberries, cover them with sweet cream, sweeten them to your taste, spread them on the lower crust and put the upper crust over them and you have a dish fit for a wedding. AUNT MARY.

TO WASH LAWNS.—To wash lawns or prints which you suspect will fade in the ordinary process, tie up in a towel three quarts of wheat bran and boil a half hour in two pails of water. Use a part of the water to wash, and a part to rinse the garment, and dry in the shade. You will need no starch. ELIZA LAMPSON.

AN EXCELLENT LINEMENT.—Take the whites of two eggs, beaten to a froth, a wineglass of vinegar, a wineglass of spirits of turpentine, and wineglass of alcohol, beating it all the time. This linement must be put togther in the order mentioned above, or it will not be thoroughly incorporated. We find this very superior in all cases of sprains, bruises, &c., on man and beast.

SURE CURE FOR WARTS.—Take 2 or 3 cents worth of sal-ammoniac, dissolve it in a gill of soft water, and wet the warts frequently with the solution, when they will disappear in a week or two.

TO REMOVE A SCREW IN WOOD.—Heat a poker red hot and put it on the top of the screw for a minute or two, then use the screw-driver and you will easily take it out, if done while it is warm.

MEDICAL.

A GREAT CURE OF ASTHMA.

I feel myself under obligations to you, as well as a duty I owe to others who have been like sufferers with myself, in order that they may know where they can get cured. I had been subject to violent, continued attacks of ASTHMA for more than six years, and had been to great expense and to various medical men of experience without obtaining any permanent relief, or relieved at all. I was so bad that I never knew what it was to be free from the disease. I had to sit up in bed every night for weeks and weeks, without any prospect or hope of cure. My condition was such that I felt life a burthen, and when I got an attack I felt in danger of suffocating every moment. So terrible had been my suffering that my mother says that she has seen me so near suffocation that I was nearly black in the face from the desperate efforts made to get breath. In the cold winter nights, many's night, with the doors and windows of the house thrown wide open, in order to hinder the apparent danger of strangulation. In this condition, on the 13th of October, 1866, having heard of DR. KEYSER'S skill in curing this disease, I called on him, in company with my husband, Joseph Meyers, but I must confess with a great deal of doubt as to effecting a permanent cure. DR. KEYSER examined me carefully, and my lungs all over, with his LUNG SOUND, and told me that with care I would get well. I persevered with his medicines for over a year, and am to-day in vigorous health, and totally FREE FROM THE ASTHMA, and its terribly disagreeable attendants. I have had, once in a while, a slight attack of the disease, but I regard my health as entirely re-established, and if I do have any attack, a few doses of the Doctor's medicine immediately relieves it. I cannot feel too thankful for the exemption from a disease which used to cost me whole weeks and months of loss of sleep, besides suffering which none but those who are subject to this disease can fully appreciate or describe.

NANCY MEYERS,
MARY MOUNT JOY, (her mother,)
GEORGIANA FISHER.
Birmingham, Dec. 9, 1867.

The case of Mrs. Meyers, recited above, is one of more than ordinary importance, because of the violence of the attacks, their continued length, and the great prostration of all the vital powers attending the disease. Any one who knew her during the time she was a sufferer from the disease of which she was cured, and will look at her now, the very picture of robust health, cannot but admit that the cure is one of more than ordinary character, inasmuch as we hear of Asthma every day of our lives, being a disease of an incurable nature. Let those who doubt investigate for themselves.

Deafness, Hard Hearing, Discharges from the Ear, Polypus of the Ear, Catarrh, Ozena, Blind Eyes, Inflamed Eyes, and every species of Sore Eyes and Ears successfully Treated by Dr. Keyser, No. 120 Penn Street.

SIGHT RESTORED.

The case to which we alluded some weeks ago, of Christiana Fisher, of Beaver county, is now entirely confirmed by the appearance of Miss Fisher herself, who to-day called on DR. KEYSER in person, to thank him for his kindness and skill in restoring her to ENTIRE AND PERFECT SIGHT. Miss Fisher has been nearly blind for four months. She was so blind that she could not distinguish any object so as to make out what it was. The case is remarkable, as hundreds of cases like her's are doomed to never-ending darkness, on the flimsy pretext that there is no cure, and nothing can be done. She was under DR. KEYSER'S treatment for two months, and before she applied to him, through her brother, Simon P. Fisher, slight hopes were entertained of her ever getting her sight. Her case is well known in the neighborhood where she resides, and has been regarded as one of extraordinary recovery. We, the undersigned, know of the cure of Miss Fisher, and bear willing testimony to the fact above stated. CHRISTIAN FISHER,

The case above referred to was entirely cured by medicines to purify the blood, and it is witnessed by scores of persons who have known Miss Fisher, and have a knowledge of her total restoration to health and the recovery of her sight, as the accompanying letter of her brother sets forth:

DR. KEYSER This is the list of names that I have to your advertisement of the cure of my sister, Christiana Fisher. They were all willing to put their names down, and were very much astonished to see that you brought her sight so soon. My mother sends her thanks to you; she says "you are one of the greatest men in the world." She says if we had not come across you she believes her child would not be living at this time. We all join in sending our love and respects to you.

PULMONARY CONSUMPTION, RESULTING FROM PLEURISY, CURED.

Statement of GEORGE FORD, carpenter, of No. 16 Sampson street, Allegheny City:

I took a violent attack of pleurisy, in May, 1866, which left me with a cough lasting all summer, wearing away my strength and gradually undermining my health. During this attack of pleurisy I had several physicians of the highest reputation in the city. After I had recovered from the pleurisy, I was advised to go into the country, which I did, and when there I called in a doctor, who told me my left lung was affected, and that if something were not done soon I would die of CONSUMPTION. I lingered on from this time until about the middle of June, my cough and lung disease gradually growing worse, and I weaker every day, and almost despairing of ever getting well. In this state of despondency, and knowing the general belief of the incurability of Consumption, and having heard of cures made by DR. KEYSER, and seeing his advertisement in the newspapers, I was induced in October last to call on the Doctor at his office, 120 Penn street, and had him examine my lungs with his "LUNG SOUND." He told me the upper lobe of my left lung was very much diseased, but he thought with great care and the preseverance in the use of his medicine, I would get well. At the time I called on DR. KEYSER my pulse was over one hundred and thirty beats in a minute, and I was generally prostrated, and had to cough night and day. I commenced the Doctor's treatment in October, with a feeble, broken constitution, and continued it faithfully until the present time. The Doctor's medicines helped me from the very start, and I could gradually feel myself getting stronger, and my cough and expectoration lessening. I have gained greatly in flesh, and consider myself well; all the rattling of my lung has ceased, and my general health is in every way good. All my relatives and friends know of the advanced stage of my disease and my extraordinary recovery. One of the medicines given me by DR. KEYSER was an medicine called LUNG CURE, which I took in connection with the other treatment.

GEORGE FORD.
PITTSBURGH, March 30, 1868.

ANOTHER CURE OF CONSUMPTION.

Statement of John G. Wigham, of Turtle Creek, Allegheny county:

I was discharged from the United States army in January, 1866, on account of a wound in the head, from a shell, and a disease which the army physicians pronounced CONSUMPTION. I had a terrible cough, and fell away in strength and flesh, and was unable to do anything. Shortly after my return from the army, I made application to a physician of my neighborhood, and afterwards to another in Pittsburgh of high reputation, whose remedies I used faithfully for five months, without any benefit whatever, but rather grew worse, and wasted in flesh and strength every day. In August, 1866, my mother took me to DR. KEYSER, of 120 Penn street, whose skill in such cases like mine had been highly spoken of, and put myself under his treatment. The Doctor examined my lungs very carefully with his LUNG SOUND, and told me that my left lung was badly diseased at the upper part, but if I was careful he thought he could cure me by following his directions closely, which I did from that day to this. I gradually improved under DR. KEYSER'S medicines from the first week I commenced to take them, and my general health has improved, and my cheat, where it was sunken away, and where it pained me, has become full and strong and free from pain. I can now do a full day's work, and take great pleasure in giving my testimony in favor of DR. KEYSER'S treatment and medicines.

The "Mail" Libel Case—A Failure.

In our report of the hearing in the libel case against Bartley T. Campbell, of the Evening Mail, in which Mrs. L. C. Trimble was prosecutrix, we stated that Mr. Campbell had made information charging Mrs. Trimble with keeping a disreputable house, and that a hearing would take place yesterday.

At the appointed time the parties appeared with their counsel, Jas. H. Hopkins, Esq., for the prosecution, and William Owens, Esq., for the defense. A large number of witnesses were called on the part of the prosecution, but their examination failed to elicit the slightest evidence derogatory to the character of the accused, or in any way substantiate the charge. Many of them had known Mrs. T. for a short time, and had visited the house, but none of them had seen anything that would lead them to believe the house a disreputable one. After several witnesses had been examined the counsel for the prosecution asked for a continuance of the case in consequence of the absence of the witness from whom the information was received and upon which the prosecution was based.

Alderman Strain, before whom the information was made, had decided to continue the case, and was about to issue an attachment for the absent witness when he made his appearance. He was placed upon the stand, and passed through a rigid examination by the prosecutor in person, his attorney having taken his departure, thinking the case would be continued, but his testimony was much the same as that which had preceded it.

The attorney for the defense stated that as the opposing counsel had taken his departure, he would be brief in his remarks. He asked, inasmuch as the prosecutor had failed to make out a case, that the accused be discharged.

The Alderman dismissed the case, holding the prosecutor for the costs, and held Mr. Campbell to bail in the sum of five hundred dollars on each of the libel cases.

It is due to Mr. Campbell to state that the prosecution of Mrs. Trimble was based on information received, and that it was upon that information the articles were written upon which the prosecution for libel is founded.

Second Street Improvement—The Spring in the Hillside.

If perseverance under many difficulties be a virtue, or certain indication of success, those interested will ere long be gratified at the consummation of a most substantial improvement of that part of Second street lying in the Eighth ward. Along in the winter the work of cutting off the hillside, in order to make the street the desired width, was commenced and prosecuted vigorously, as the weather permitted, causing at intervals, not unnecessarily, however, serious interruption to travel, of which there is very considerable in that direction, via the Birmingham bridge, also from the suburbs on the northern side of the river, until at length the work has reached such progress as to cause hope of an early completion. Much, however, remains to be done to the street beyond the bridge, in the way of straightening and filling, present efforts being directed mainly towards completing that portion from the point at which the street has been paved to the end of the bridge. The importance of this thoroughfare as an outlet of the city, we are gratified to observe, is properly appreciated by the authorities. It will, when the improvements now in progress are completed, become one of the most pleasant drives out of the city.

Considerable annoyance has been caused to the workmen by a spring in the hillside, from the copious and uninterrupted flow of water. It has been suggested that this spring of pure water, for many years appreciated as a luxury by inhabitants of the vicinity, be preserved rather than destroyed, which we think might be done at trifling expense, and in such manner as not to prove a nuisance, the only objection we have heard urged to the proposition. Indeed, from the situation of the ground, and the strength of the spring, it seems to us that the authorities will be required, as a matter of economy, in order to prevent it becoming a nuisance, to make an outlet for the water across the street to the river, and in this view, for the comparatively small expenditure which would be required, it would be an exercise of sound discretion on the part of the authorities to so preserve the spring that it may continue to be enjoyed as a luxury in the vicinity.

Coroner's Inquest.

Coroner Clawson held an inquest yesterday morning on the body of Jane McRoberts, the little girl who committed suicide Sunday evening, by hanging herself, a brief account of which we published yesterday morning. The following is the testimony in the case:

Mary McRoberts, sworn.—I am the mother of deceased; Sunday morning she appeared dull and stupid; left her at home while we were at church; she went to Sabbath school in the afternoon, and afterwards to church. She held the baby while we were at supper; she then took her supper, washed the dishes, cleaned up the kitchen, and afterwards washed her little brother's face. I had promised to take her a walk and became uneasy because she could not be found. She was a great reader and supposing she had sit down on the kitchen stairs to read, went down and found her hanging by the neck from a joist in the cellar. We found her about seven o'clock; I think about six when we missed her. She was twelve years of age last November. She was a quiet and affectionate child.

James McRoberts, sworn.—Am the father of the deceased; was called down stairs by my wife, and found the child hung by the neck; cut the rope and carried her up stairs. The rope had been given her as a jumping rope. It was attached to a nail in a joist in the cellar. She had wrapped it round her neck while standing on an old crib, and then stepped off. The rope had not been fastened round her neck, as it fell off when I carried her up stairs.

The jury found that the deceased came to her death by hanging herself Sunday, June 14th, at her father's house on Veto street, Second ward, Allegheny.

This afternoon and evening.

Arm Crushed.—Yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock Christian Bradford, residing on Webster street, Pittsburgh, in the employ of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, had his arm very badly crushed by the falling of a canopy at the outer depot, Ninth ward. He was brought to the Union Passenger Depot, where the injury was attended to by Dr. Hamilton. Fears are entertained that it is so severe as to render amputation necessary.

Quarter Sessions Court—Judge Stowe.

Court met at the usual hour Monday morning.

BEER SALOON BRAWL.

The first case taken up was that of the Commonwealth vs. Joseph Ditterly, Joseph Nocks and Joseph Brown, indictment assault and battery on Joseph E. Wentz. It appeared that Wentz went into the beer saloon of George Lehman, in Birmingham, on the evening of the 16th of May last, and engaged in conversation with Nocks, accusing him of circulating a damaging report about his (Wentz's) wife. The conversation seemed likely to lead to a quarrel, whereupon Wentz was ordered by the barkeeper, and also by the proprietor, to leave the saloon, and upon his refusal to comply was forcibly ejected, his resistance resulting in his being considerably abused. The jury found a verdict of not guilty.

ROBBED A DRUNKEN MAN.

Joseph Perkins and Melvin A. Eyler were next arraigned on an indictment charging them with robbing William Shields of fifty-six dollars. The prosecutor stated that on the night of the 14th of May last, while considerably under the influence of liquor, he met two men, the defendants he believed, on St. Clair street, and was taken by them to the vicinity of Trimble's Varieties, on Penn street, and there robbed of his money. He was first made aware of the robbery by two policemen who had arrested the defendants. Mr. McMullen, constable of the Fourth ward, testified he assisted in arresting the defendants, about two o'clock on the morning of the 15th of May; they represented they had taken charge of a drunken man (the prosecutor) and placed him in an old building to secure him from arrest by the police; said they did not know the man; in the possession of Perkins, one of the defendants, was found fifty-six dollars in a handkerchief, corresponding with a description given by the prosecutor. Officer O'Donnell testified to having noticed the defendants, in company with a drunken man, disappear in an alley near Trimble's; presently the defendants returned to the street, looked around suspiciously, and then went to an oyster saloon in the neighborhood. The officer went into the alley, found the prosecutor lying down, his pockets presenting the appearance of having been hastily "gone through," and roused him up. Soon after the defendants were arrested at a saloon where they had ordered oysters, taken to the Mayor's office, searched, and money corresponding to the description given by the prosecutor found in the possession of Perkins, wrapped in a handkerchief, which also belonged to the prosecutor.

The defense made consisted in an effort to prove the good character of the accused. The evidence, however, was sufficiently conclusive to establish guilt, and the jury found a verdict accordingly, the eloquent portrayal by Mr. Cochran (who appeared for Perkins) of the possibility of the fact hereafter appearing that his client was innocent, and that money honestly earned and found in his possession had been the means of consigning him to a dungeon, failing of its intended effect. The fashion still prevails, notwithstanding frequent and pointed rebukes from the Court, of counsel endeavoring to frighten jurors into finding verdicts of acquittal in the plainest cases of guilt by such demonstrations. To the credit of jurors it must be said they almost invariably fail of effect; but we do think that those members of the bar who so display their talent should have a higher regard or estimation of the intelligence of jurors, and that they should not be allowed to insult them by appeals to their conscience against the plainest common sense.

Perkins was sentenced to undergo three years imprisonment in the Penitentiary. Eyler, who had been "recommended to mercy," was sentenced to one year's imprisonment—the Court being of the opinion, not that under the law he was less guilty than his companion, but that in consequence of his youth, and in view of some evidence of his previous good character, leniency would result beneficially in his case.

AN OFFENSE REPEATED.

William Patterson, a young man of perhaps twenty-five years of age, was arraigned on an indictment charging him with fornication and bastardy. The complainant was Elizabeth Henry, twenty years of age, residing with her mother in Bedford street, this city. Miss Henry testified that the child, a female, was begotten by the defendant in July, 1867, and born on the 22d of April, 1868, and that she previously had a child, of which the defendant was also the father. She was searchingly cross-examined as to her associations with young men, but protested that defendant was the only one with whom she had been intimate. The mother of the prosecutrix testified she had forbidden the defendant to come in her house, and that he was not in the house to her knowledge during July last, although she had frequently seen him with her daughter outside. The case was submitted without argument, and the jury returned a verdict of guilty. The defendant was sentenced to pay a fine of ten dollars to the Guardians of the Poor, the sum of twenty-five dollars to the prosecutrix, and one dollar and a quarter per week for five years for the support of the child.

A HEAVY LARCENY.

George W. Cagle, a lad, was arraigned for the larceny of some $770 from Rinehart Buck, in November last. Mr. Buck testified that he received a check for that amount of money from a Building Association, that he drew the money on the check, and subsequently went to a car on the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad, at the Federal street, Allegheny, depot, for the purpose of handling some vinegar. He took off his coat, in the side pocket of which was the money, and hung it up in the car, and while engaged in tapping the vinegar for the purpose of giving it ventilation, he observed the defendant enter the car and take from the coat the pocket book containing the money. He followed him out of the car, but the defendant was not in view. The defendant was arrested a short time since, having returned voluntarily. Prosecutor said he had not received any of his money back. William Duncan, a small boy, twelve years of ago, testified that he saw the defendant standing alongside of Mr. Buck's coat, and saw him jump out of the car door and go away rapidly. Mr. Buck proceeded at once to the Mayor's office and made information of the larceny. Officer Herman testified he arrested the defendant in a billiard saloon, on Fifth street, this city, in the latter part of April last, taking him to the Allegheny Mayor's office, where he was identified. Prosecution here rested.

Charles Toppis, for the defense, testified that in November last the defendant was working with his father in Allegheny; saw him on the day of the larceny, and for several weeks after, about the town. He went away, and upon his return said he had been to Ironton, Ohio. Jacob Cagle, father of defendant, testified that he resided in Allegheny, on Ohio street, in November last, and was engaged in manufacturing cigars. Heard about the robbery, read about it in the papers the next day after; his son, the defendant, was then at home, working. Subsequently, could not say how long after, his son went to Ironton, having received a letter from his old boss. His son wanted to go there, and witness gave him money to make the journey to Ironton. On the 13th of November last, the day on which the robbery was committed—between twelve and one o'clock—the defendant was at home at dinner; he always eat dinner with witness; their meals were sent to the shop from their residence in Manchester; sometimes he went out after dinner and would remain for some time.

The case was not concluded at adjournment.

District Court.—Judges Hampton and Williams were engaged yesterday morning in disposing of the cases on the argument list.

Fine French Mantles—Bates & Bell's.

The Great Rebellion or The Last Ditch.

The literary, as well as the curious and most ardent lovers of amusement, have been deeply interested during the past few weeks concerning a dramatic burlesque of decided merit from the pen of T. R. Hann, the Stage Director of the Opera House. This production had been rehearsed before a number of scholarly critics who awarded it the highest encomiums of praise, and predicted that it would rapidly find higher place than John Brougham's "Pocahontas." Hardly expecting, however, anything good to come out of the Opera House, we visited that establishment last night and found in attendance awaiting the "lifting of the curtain" one of the largest and most fashionable and intelligent audiences that has graced the auditorium of the house for many weeks. The play abounds in clever hits, comical situations, humorous intermingling of characters and sharp, witty passages which cut deep and shine brilliantly. The words are cleverly arranged in rhyme and in places are not devoid of fine sentiment and feeling. We can conceive of nothing approaching nearer the height of ludicrousness than the pompous review of the Southern army of rebels made before the cunning Napoleon, the self-glorifying John Bull and the inimitable Jefferson Davis. The allegorical representations of the Spirit of Progress, and the Spirits of Sedition, Treason and Secession were all admirably conceived and sustained in an artistic manner. Miss Helen Marble, an excellent reader and fair singer, as Columbia, won for herself high place in the estimation of the audience. The closing scene surpassed in grandeur and beauty anything ever put on the stage in this city, not even excepting Manager Hess' best efforts to produce fine scenic effects. If the play were wanting in every other particular, the closing scene would amply atone for the shortcomings.

If the Minstrel Scene and a few weak passages which seem to have been interlarded to stretch out the piece, were cut, the play would prove decidedly more interesting, especially on a warm summer's night such as was last. Otherwise the piece is a grand success, and as a patriotic production of Pittsburgh talent and skill all should be proud of it, and encourage its author with their presence at the Opera House during its presentation.

Malicious.

Some malicious scamp, not having the fear of the law before him, last evening about nine o'clock threw a stone, or some other missile, through the window of the Diamond front boot and shoe store, 63 Fifth street. This establishment has recently passed into the hands of Mr. Will. T. Wiley, the enterprising jeweler on Wylie street, who, a few days since, had large French plate glass put in the windows, each one of which cost over one hundred dollars, and it was through one of them that the missile passed. Mr. Wiley offers fifty dollars reward for information that will lead to the arrest and punishment of the malicious scoundrel who perpetrated the mean, contemptible act. Mr. W. is one of our most enterprising business men, and fully deserving of the confidence of the public. He has been engaged in business in this city for a number of years, enjoys the confidence and esteem of the principal business men here, and we take pleasure in recommending the Diamond Front Boot and Shoe Store since it has passed into his hands.

Distressing Loss of Life.

On Sunday morning, between eleven and twelve o'clock, while a party of men and boys were bathing in the Allegheny river, at the mouth of Sandy Creek, one of them, a boy named Charles Walters, aged thirteen years, was observed to be struggling in the water, and after a few moments he sank below the surface. A young man named Ballan, who was near at the time, dove after him but is supposed to have struck his head against a stone, as blood was seen on his face when he rose. He sank almost immediately and failed to rise again. Young Walters, after rising twice to the surface, also sank and was drowned before aid could reach him. Both of the bodies were recovered yesterday, and an inquest was held by Coroner Clawson who rendered a verdict in accordance with the above facts.

Mr. Ballan was a young Englishman about twenty-four years of age. He had been in this country about two years and was employed as a miner at the coal works of Messrs. Kier, Foster and Kier.

Western University Alumni.

A large and interesting special meeting of the Western University Alumni Association was held Monday evening, June 15th, at the University Hall. The meeting was called to order at eight o'clock, Mr. James W. Numelly in the chair, and Mr. H. D. Gamble acting Secretary. A letter from Hon. Jos. Buffington, of Kittanning, regretting his inability to comply with the request of the Association to deliver the annual address, in consequence of his official duties, expressing his kindest regards to the Association for the invitation, and expressing a desire to serve them at some future time, was read. Arrangements were made for holding the next regular meeting, which takes place at the University Hall, Thursday evening, June 25th, after which the Associat on adjourned.

It is the desire of the Asssciation to make the approaching meeting an unusually interesting one, and in order to do so a full attendance of the members, and especially the older ones, is earnestly requested.

Pittsburgh Female College—Commencement Exercises.

To-morrow at this sterling and firmly established educational institution, located in our city, there will be a general examination in studies of the term. On Thursday the senior class will be examined by the Committee appointed by the Church Conference, and on the evening of that day will take place, in the College Chapel, the annual contest in instrumental and vocal music for the "McKee" and "Mellor" prizes—the former a gold medal and the latter a handsome volume of vocal music. The Committee selected to decide between contestants consists of Profs. Carl Grebe, C. Tetedoux, C. C. Mellor, H. Kleber and Mr. W. P. Marshall. The contest promises to be more than usually interesting and will not fail to draw a fine audience. Half past seven is the time announced for the commencement of performances.

Malicious Mischief.

Joseph Hastings alleges that he was engaged in grading Second street, and to facilitate his work had barricaded it, so as to stop all travel thereon, when John Swan, engaged at Campbell's coke ovens, broke down the barricade and drove his wagon over the prosecutor's cart, breaking the shafts and otherwise injuring it to the amount of seven dollars, for which he makes information against said Swan, before Alderman McMasters, for malicious mischief. A warrant was issued.

An eagle was lately shot in Canfield, Ohio, measuring seven feet from tip to tip.

A Swindling Operation.

W. P. Cherrington, agent of the American Life Insurance Company of Philadelphia, made information before Justice Ammon, yesterday, charging W. B. Hollis, a former agent of the Company, with cheating by false pretence. It appears that while Hollis was agent for the Company a policy on the life of Christ. Coleman for three thousand dollars was presented for payment by his brother, William Coleman, who was administrator of his estate, and it is alleged by the deponent that Hollis represented to Coleman that the policy was defective and would not be paid, but if he would give him a judgment note for five hundred dollars he would have the policy cashed. Under these representations the note was given, and the policy paid. The present agent of the company alleges that the representations made by Hollis were utterly false and untrue, and made with an intent to cheat and defraud Coleman out of five hundred dollars. A warrant was issued for the arrest of Hollis.

Bates & Bell's for Bradley's Skirts from 50 cents.

The Use of the Allegheny Fire Plugs.

A habit has prevailed to an unwarrantable extent in Allegheny city, of opening the plugs for ordinary purposes, and in some cases for sprinkling the streets through hose. This is a bad practice, wasting the water supplied by the city, which might at any moment be needed in case of fire. Besides, it is contrary to an ordinance bearing directly on the subject, which is about to be rigidly enforced, it is unlawful for any body to open any of the plugs unless in actual necessity for the use of fire engines at a time of fire, without having a regular written permit from the Superintendent of Water Works. It will be observed by formal notice, printed elsewhere, by William Paul, Jr., Esq., Superintendent, that from this time, any person found guilty of violating the law will be prosecuted and punished. Permits will be issued in certain cases on application at the Superintendents office.

No Larceny.

Isaac Crossland made information before the Mayor yesterday, charging J. Whitfield with larceny. Crossland is a file manufacturer, and has an establishment on Duquesne Way, and the accused was employed in his office. One day last week Crossland was absent and left Whitfield in charge of the office, and when he returned he missed a package containing twenty-six dollars. Thinking the young man had taken it, he made the information. The accused was arrested and came to the Mayor's office and explained the matter to the satisfaction of his too hasty employer. It appears he had used the money in paying the hands about the establishment. He was discharged and the prosecutor required to pay the costs.

Table Damasks from 50 cents—Bates & Bell's.

Larceny by Bailee.

Mary Morgan, of Birmingham, made information before Justice Salisbury yesterday, charging L. Mersrotta, a butcher in the Pittsburgh market with larceny by bailee. Mrs. M. alleges that she purchased a piece of meat from the accused for ninety-seven cents, and in payment gave him a two dllar bill, and that he only gave her three cents change. She stepped outside of the market house before noticing the mistake but immediately returned and informed him of it. He contended that she only gave him one dollar. He was arrested and held for a hearing.

Malicious Mischief.

Jacob Wentkop made information before Justice Salisbury, of Birmingham yesterday, charging John Lawrence, James Cassidy, Ernest Myers and Jno. Gensheiner, with malicious mischief. The prosecutor is proprietor of a barber shop on Carson street, Birmingham, and he alleges that the accused came to his establishment, Saturday night at a late hour and battered the door down. Warrants were issued for their arrest.

Barrs in Trouble.

John Hack made information before Alderman Thomas yesterday, against Henry and John Barr, for assault and battery. The prosecutor alleges that the defendants, without provocation, beat and abused him and threatened to take his life.

William Barr made information against the same defendants, for surety of the peace.

They were arrested, and after a hearing, held to bail for their appearance at Court.

Grand Vocal Concert.—We take pleasure in calling the attention of our readers to the advertisement of a grand vocal concert to be given in the Second U. P. church, of this city, on Thursday evening, the 18th inst. This concert is given for the purpose of aiding the Eighth ward U. P. Mission Church. Some of the finest amateurs of Pittsburgh will be among the singers, and the object being a good one we hope our readers will respond to their call and aid them in their good work. Tickets for sale at Mellor's Music Store, Wood street, and Dunseath & Co's Jewelry Store, Fifth street.

Abused His Children.—Friday evening John Thomas was arrested on information made before Justice Thomas by his sisters Jane Thomas and Mary Davis, charging him with drunkenness and cruel treatment of his children. Upon a hearing the accused was fined ten dollars, and in default of payment the magistrate made a commitment for ten days. The prisoner was taken to the Birmingham lock-up, where he was retained over night and the next morning upon legally giving his children in charge of his sisters and promising to "sin no more" he was released upon payment of the costs.

Fire in Birmingham.—About one o'clock yesterday a fire occurred in A. Bender's New York Exchange Saloon, on Denman street, Birmingham. The fire department of the South Side, and some of the companies from this city, were promptly on the ground, and succeeded in subduing the flames before they had made much progress. The house and its contents were, however, considerably damaged by water. The building and stock were fully insured in the German Insurance Company of Pittsburgh and the Germania of Philadelphia.

Church Renovation.—The Manchester Presbyterian Church, located on the corner of Franklin and Market streets, has been undergoing a thorough renovation and refitting during the past few weeks. Carpenters, painters, plumbers, upholsters, &c. &c., have been manipulating it externally and internally, and have succeeded in changing it from a dingy, sombre looking place into a clean, cheerful and inviting house of worship. We shall notice the improvement more at length in another issue.

Lecture.—Rev. J. J. Mellyar, of the Union M. E. Church, Manchester, will deliver a lecture this evening in Henry's Hall, Sixth ward, on the "Origin, object and opposition to Secret Societies." The gentleman is spoken of quite favorably as a lecturer, and as he is a prominent member in both the Odd Fellows and Free Mason societies, the subject will no doubt be ably and instructively handled.

Blackberries promise a bountiful crop this season.

Ghost Stories.

One or more ghosts are frightening the people in our eastern counties. Many think it to be the shade of some departed redskin chief revisiting his former possessions, but as the apparition is seen in different places at the same time its being a shade in the singular number is open for debate. The most remarkable feature in the case is the fact that no two persons see the apparition in the same shape. For instance, three people may be together, one will see a great dog, another an immense bird, while the third will see a nondescript, with the legs of a man, the body of a bird, the wings of a bat, and the head of a horse. This interesting visitor from the other world is said to be moving westward. We shall anxiously await his advent in our neighborhood, and in the meanwhile advise our readers to call at the premium trunk factory of Joseph Liebler, No. 104 Wood street, and examine the very fine assortment of trunks, valises, hand sacks and everything in that way. They may be assured that there is not the ghost of a chance for purchasing anywhere else to better advantage, or of obtaining better selection.

Serious Accident.—A serious accident occurred at the coopering establishment of Mr. M'Cloy in Manchester yesterday, by which George Page, a boy about fifteen years of age, was severely scalded. A large vat stands in the yard of the establishment, and is kept full of scalding water, for the purpose of soaking the hoops. Page was playing in the yard, and fell into the vat, and was very badly scalded before he could be rescued. He was removed to his home near by, and received proper medical attention. His injuries are quite serious, but not necessarily fatal.

Committed.—Johnny Schmoker was arrested yesterday, charged with disorderly conduct, on oath of Ida Williams. It appears that Johnny, being slightly under the influence of "benzine" Sunday night, went to the residence of Ida on Mulbery alley, and kicked the door down. He had a hearing before the Mayor yesterday, and was fined ten dollars and in default of payment was committed for ten days.

Attempted Robbery.—About ten o'clock last night two men induced a stranger into a private place on St. Clair street and demanded his money. He called for the police, and the thieves started to run, but were intercepted by the officers and conveyed to the lock-up. We were unable to obtain the particulars of the affair, as the officers in charge declined to give any information concerning the matter.

Ella Rodgers made information before Alderman McMasters, yesterday, against her husband, Jas. W. Rodgers, of Manchester, charging him with abandonment. The prosecutor says she was married about ten months since to the defendant, and that a few days after their marriage he deserted her, since which time he refuses to support or assist in maintaining her. A warrant was issued.

Assault and Battery.—Thomas A. Best made information before Mayor Blackmore yesterday, charging Thomas Morgan with assault and battery. He alleges that the accused met him on the street, and without any provocation knocked him down. Morgan had previously been arrested and committed for disorderly conduct. He will have a hearing in the assault and battery case to-day.

White Sacques for $2,25—Bates & Bell's.

Boy Drowned.—About four o'clock on Sunday afternoon a boy about twelve years of age, named Louis Hotz, residing in Temperanceville, was drowned while bathing with a party of his companions, at the mouth of Chartiers Creek, near McKee's Rocks. The body was recovered yesterday, and the Coroner will hold an inquest this morning.

Row in Allegheny. First alley, in the Third ward, Allegheny, was the theatre of quite an interesting display of muscle yesterday in which two men and two women were the principal actors. After some sharp skirmishing, resulting in a severe hand cutting for one of the contestants, the case was taken to the Mayor's office, where it was finally compromised.

Loafers Arrested.—A party of seventeen negroes loating in front of the African Church, corner of Hemlock and Boyle streets, Allegheny, were arrested Sunday evening and taken to the lock-up. After remaining there over night, such of them as paid their fines were discharged, while some four or five being short of funds were sent to jail for a few days.

Runaway.—The horses attached to the Relief hose carriage, in going to the fire in Birmingham yesterday, took fright on McKee street of that borough and ran away. They proceeded up McKee street some distance when they were brought to a halt by one of the wheels catching in a sewer drop. One wheel was torn off. No other damage was done.

Correction.—In our notice of a sale at auction of dwellings, by Mr. E. C. White, to take place on Thursday, which appeared in our local column, yesterday, there was a mis-print—the word Manchester should have been printed Mansfield. The houses to be sold are pleasantly situated in the beautiful village of Mansfield.

Temperance Meeting.—The Allegheny Temperance Lodge will meet this evening in the First Presbyterian (Rev. E. Swift's) church, Beaver street. Addresses will be delivered by Mr. Kaufman, agent of the State Temperance Union; also by several distinguished friends of Temperance from abroad.

Streets to be Repaired.—A resolution having been adopted in Councils releasing the Minersville Passenger Railway Company from the obligation to keep Wylie and Fulton streets and Centre Avenue in repair, Street Commissioner McFaden will commence work on those streets to-day.

Break Down.—Yesterday morning a wagon loaded with hay and driven by a countryman named Snyder, broke down on Ohio street, Allegheny, considerably obstructing the travel on that highway, and interfering for an hour or so with the running of the Troy Hill passenger cars.

Row in Diamond Alley.—A disgraceful fight occurred in Diamond Alley, near Walz's saloon, last night, in which several persons were battered. Several arrests was made, but it said by some who witnessed the affair that the principal actors made their escape.

Fine Buildings.—The five four story buildings, now in course of erection on Fourth street, by A. H. English & Co., are to have an entire front of Brown stone. When completed it will be one of the most imposing blocks in the city.
